

MRS. LORNE J. DURWARD
... former Dixie Emick

—Photo by Crotty

Lorne Durwards Return From Vegas Honeymoon

Miss Dixie Ferne Emick of San Pedro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Emick of Urich, Mo., became the bride of Lorne J. Durward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne G. Durward of 20806 Conradi Ave., Torrance, in a ceremony performed by Rev. Fred Callahan at 1 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 10 at St. Philomena Catholic Church.

Escorted by Jack Durward, uncle of the bridegroom, the bride was dressed in a white lace ballerina gown with three-quarter sleeves. Her bateau neckline and skirt were edged in scallops and her illusion veil fell from a pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and orange blossoms.

Wearing a pale blue taffeta gown and carrying a blue and white carnation bouquet, Miss Marie A. Durward was maid of honor.

Best man was Richard Bell. David Durward was usher.

Following the ceremony, a reception took place at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Presiding over the guest book was Mrs. Sharon Carter.

Following a Las Vegas honeymoon, the newlyweds are at home at 2241 Barbour Ct., San Pedro.

A 1958 graduate of Urich High School, the bride is employed at Ft. MacArthur. The bridegroom, who is employed by a hotel supply firm in Culver City, is a 1957 graduate of North High School and a former student at El Camino College.

Auxiliary Plans Yule Pot Luck

Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary will honor Mother Lucy, honorary president of the auxiliary, at the annual Christmas party and potluck luncheon Wednesday, Dec. 5.

The 10 a.m. event will be at the Nativity Parish Annex, corner of Engracia and Arlington Ave.

Preceding luncheon, merchandise from the hospital gift shop will be on display for holiday shoppers. A short business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Clarence Van Lingen, auxiliary president.

A visit from Santa Claus will highlight festivities.

Christmas party chairman is Mrs. J. G. Ingels, vice president. Committee members include: Mmes. Roland M. Byke, Milton Bailey, Charles Hosler, Rose Cosgrove, Momer C. Morgan, Audie Howard and Howard McVay.

Telephone committee members are: Mmes. William H. Colbreath, Robert F. Miller, Virginian Lessing and C. G. Ahmann.

Mrs. Dohand Puhl is in charge of prizes.

TO ATTEND PARTY

Mrs. Charles Lockwood of Torrance will represent Xi Gamma chapter Beta Sigma Phi sorority at the group's annual Christmas party. The event will be at 8 p.m. Thursday Dec. 6 at the Ambassador Hotel.

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

'Winter Wonderland' To Be Luncheon Theme

"Winter Wonderland" will be the theme of a welcome luncheon Saturday for new members of Manhattan Beach Branch, American Association of University Women, according to Mrs. Ronald Webb, first vice president.

Setting for the noon event will be the Fireside Room, Community Church, 301 South Peck Ave., Manhattan Beach.

Hostesses will be the board of directors assisted by the membership committee.

Manhattan Beach branch of 200 members includes residents of El Segundo, Gardena, Hawthorne, Hermosa, Inglewood, Lomita, Los Angeles, Manhattan Beach, Palos Verdes, Playa del Rey, Redondo Beach, Rolling Hills, and Torrance. One of 1500 branches in the national AAUW, an affiliate of the International Federation of University Women, the group sponsors monthly programs of general interest.

Speakers this year will include: Dr. Wendell Miller, world-traveler and pastor of the Manhattan Beach Community Church; Adrian Brown, chairman of the Plans Board for the Los Angeles Branch of McCann-Erickson, Inc.; and Frances Robert Nugent, director of art for the Los Angeles County Museum.

Study programs are offered by the branch in: elementary and secondary education, higher education, international relations, social and economic issues, status of women, books, art, music, and mass media.

The organization also supports local, state, and federal legislation commensurate with the study program.

South Bay women college graduates with degrees from institutions accredited by AAUW are eligible for membership in the local branch. Interested individuals are invited to contact Mrs. Webb at FR 2-4167 for further information.

New members from Torrance who will attend the tea include: Mmes. Loren Christian, Iowa State University; Eugene Jig, DePauw University; David Lundberg, University of Redlands; George C. McFarland, University of California; Bernard J. McGuire, Moorhead State College; Lowell L. O'Brien, Long Beach State College; Robert W. Riedel, Grove City College; and Donald Saik, Roosevelt University.

Mrs. Luiger Salvoneschi of Lomita, graduate of the State University of Iowa, will also attend.

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL HENRY ALBACHTEN
... honeymooning in Palm Springs

Watt-Albachten Vows Solemnized

Marriage vows for Radene Sally Watt and Michael Henry Albachten were solemnized before 500 friends of the well-known South Bay young couple on Saturday afternoon in St. Lawrence Martyr Church, Redondo Beach.

The bride, a graduate of Stephens College, was given in marriage by her father Ray A. Watt, prominent Southland builder and Portuguese Bend resident, in a double ring ceremony conducted by Father Ara, Pastor of the St. Lawrence Martyr Church. The reception was held at Palos Verdes Country Club. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kean, are long-time residents of Redondo Beach.

Members of the two families were prominent in the ceremonies as Janet Suzanne Watt was maid of honor. Steve Albachten best man and Scott Watt usher.

The St. Lawrence Martyr Church was decorated in all-white theme with gladioli and gold leaves featured in the floral arrangements.

The bride's gown was of white peadeuone with a scooped neckline outlined with alenceon lace while her crescent-shaped bouquet was of mystery gardenia, stephenotis and English ivy. She wore a single strand of pearls.

Former school friends and neighbors serving as bridesmaids were: the misses Vicki Bernstein, Sonja Dabkovich, Jackie Daniel, Nadine Foutts, Sondra Hust, Jill Johnson and Donna Milligan. The ushers were Rich Carry, John Daly, Larry Hagan, Barry Teisure, Robert Nisley, Fred Spurlin, Larry Stearns, Michael Tommey and Scott Watt.

Lisa Stockham was flower girl and Robert Atkins was ring bearer. Jean Atkins was vocalist.

The bride's mother, Mrs. R. A. Watt, wore a pale orchid silk sheath and pink flowered hat and carried a corsage of mystery gardenia. Kean wore a parchment colored brocade and satin sheath to her son's wedding and carried a hybrid levedar orchid corsage.

The couple, who met while both were attending high school in Palos Verdes, honeymooned in Palm Springs and will reside at 26004 Narbonne Avenue in Lomita upon their return.

Among the prominent guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shannon, grandparents of the bridegroom.

DECORATING TABLE in preparation for new member luncheon are (l-r) Mmes. Robert J. Wickwire, Bernard McGuire, and Philip Korman, members of Manhattan Beach Branch of American Association of University Women. The Saturday event will be in Fireside Room, Manhattan Beach Community Church.

We should aim rather at leveling down our desires than leveling up our means.

—Aristotle

Janice Walters Wed in Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Janice M. Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Walters, of 20856 Dalton Ave., Torrance, and Clark E. Linss, son of Mrs. John Crosby of Hawthorne, were united in marriage in an 8 p.m. double-ring ceremony performed Friday, November 16 at Trinity Lutheran Church, Hawthorne.

Rev. Orville Hiepler officiated at the candlelight service before an altar decked with white stocks, chrysanthemums, and gladioli. Pews were decorated with bows and flowers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of chantilly lace and tulle over tafeta. Her long sleeves terminated in points and the Sabrina neckline was edged in seed pearls and sequins.

An elbow length silk illusion veil cascaded from a crown of tiny seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. William Fox was matron of honor for her sister. Dressed in a gold brocade gown and hat, she carried a cascade bouquet of gold-sprayed white carnations.

Wearing emerald green dresses and hats and bearing bouquets of white carnations edged in green, bridesmaids were: Mrs. Dennis Brienstahl and the Misses Kathy Walters and Cheryl Wiste.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Walters selected a royal blue gown. The mother of the bridegroom chose a turquoise ensemble.

Duane Lovejoy was best man and Gary Fox was ring bearer for his uncle.

Mrs. Robert Stubbs sang "Lord's Prayer" and "Crown With Thy Benediction."

The newlyweds are at home at 382 Birch St., Hawthorne following a Palm Springs honeymoon.

A graduate of Gardena High School, the bride is employed as a receptionist at Norair in Hawthorne. Her husband, who attended El Camino College, is also a graduate of Gardena High School and is also employed at Norair, where he is associated with the engineering department.

Mothers' Council Meets Tomorrow

The Mothers' Council of the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena, 1957 Redondo Beach Blvd., will meet at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow. Nursery care will be provided.

Mrs. Markey Shultz, guest speaker, will discuss "The Thorny Age." All interested mothers are invited.

COMPLETING arrangements for the annual Christmas party and potluck luncheon of Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary are (l-r) Mmes. Clarence Van Lingen, president, and

F. J. Snyder and Karl K. Ransom, co-chairman of the gift shop. Gift shop items will be featured at the 10 a.m. event Wednesday, Dec. 5, at Nativity Parish Annex.

MRS. CLARK E. LINSS
... former Janice M. Walters

—Photo by Seaman Studio