Foreign Missions Emphasized

Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita will climax a week of Foreign Mission emphasis on Sunday. Robert A. Wells, pastor will speak at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. worship services on the subject, "Can You Top This?" "This message takes the thrilling experiences of the missionary movement and weaves them into the scriptural plan to win the world to Christ. The modern missionary movement began with William Carey as he went from England to India. He was in India seven years before winning his first convert. From this beginning to the present results have been..."

The message will be a season of prayer for Foreign Missions that will continue through Friday, Dec. 7. Missionary Tom Tipton from Tanganyika will speak at both morning services Sunday, Dec. 9. The 7:30 p.m. message by Pastor this Sunday will be, "Luke, The Beloved Physician." "A major place was given to the laymen in the advance of the early Christian movement. One of the dangers of our day is to loose sight of the place of the man in the pew. The physician, the lawyer, the laborer and the housewife have a place in the cause of Christ," the pastor announced.

Our thanks should be as fervent for mercies received, as our petitions for mercies sought.

Missions Slated For Teen-Agers

A series of Advent missions for teen-agers will be conducted Sunday, Monday and Tuesday under sponsorship of the Catholic Youth Organization Rev. John P. Languille, CYO director, announced today. The mission will be given at St. Joseph Church, 119th St. and Acacia Ave., by Rev. Eugene Buhr, dean of discipline at Bishop Montgomery High School, Torrance. It will begin each evening at 7:30 p.m., last one hour and include a question and answer period. Subjects will be "What Is Authority and Who Has It In the Life of a Teen-ager?" "Vocation: Career, Marriage, Profession" and "Dating, Love and Marriage."

Teen-agers of all faiths will be invited to attend. The mission will be especially for high school students in public schools to supplement the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine day of recollection program. Its purpose is to focus attention of young people on the sacraments of the church and relationship of the sacraments to the modern teenager in the world in which he lives.
