New Year's Frivolity Set On Chapel Theater Calendar

By BETTY SCHROEDER

By popular demand Chapel Theatre is again offering a safe, sane and guaranteed wonderful New Year's Eve full of carefree fun and frivolity.

The celebration program, through the combined efforts of Smith Bros. Fish Shanty restaurant, will provide steak dinner and champagne at the Fish Shanty, Monday, Dec. 31, at 7:30 p.m.; then presentation of the riotous comedy "The Marriage Go-Round" by Leslie Stevens at Chapel Theatre; followed by a return to the Fish Shanty for "seeing-in" the New Year while dancing to the Hi Notes Orchestra, munching hors d'oeuvres, merry-making with party favors and all you associate with New Year's Eve among gay and festive surroundings.

Reservations are now being taken for this evening's affair, close to home for South Bay residents without having to worry about traffic or distance, with the theatre and restaurant being on the same property—4164 Pacific Coast Hwy., Torrance.

This festive holiday package is priced at $12 per person. Reservations and further information may be obtained by calling box office, FR 2-9636.

Appropriate for the holiday season is Chapel Theatre's production of "The Marriage Go-Round," a fun-filled two-act comedy. The eternal triangle is given a most unique twist when the happily married lives of Paul and Content Deville are invaded by the visit of an old friend's daughter.

The beautiful Katrin proceeds to make this happily married professor a most fantastic proposition, thus creating the hilarious situations which come about in the ensuing acts.

This sophisticated play, shown to adults only, will open Friday, Dec. 28, with curtain at 8:30 p.m. at chapel Theatre and is sched-

Boat Show Scheduled

Dates for the Seventh Annual Southern California Boat Show at Los Angeles Pan Pacific Auditorium have been set Jan. 18 thru 27, announced the sponsoring Southern California Marine Association.

The nautical exposition, which now ranks among the top three Boat Shows in the nation, again will showcase 1963 models in boats, motors and marine accessories.

"Space demands by the major manufacturers of marine goods has been fantastic," declared show chairman Bill Schock. "Exhibits will cover more than 200,000 square feet of space."

Show Producer H. Werner Buck said that the 1963 Boat Show would present a complete new "face." The Pan Pacific Auditorium will feature nautical decorations both overhead and in the booths that will provide a bright and colorful atmosphere for the visitor.

Association officials have worked out an idea whereby the show will be laid out "in neighborhoods" which in turn will be divided into "avenues."

The "neighborhoods" will contain specific lines, like outboard motors, small boats, cruisers sail boats, etc. Chosen to reign over the marine exposition festivities was pretty Julie Barnett, former UCLA coed, from Palos Verdes.

Little Indy Race Drivers Set Times

Excitement ran high as drivers of Little Indy quarter midget track, 190th and Normandie, went through their paces for the spectators.

Setting fast time in the "A" class was Mike Porzio. Cortney Welch won the trophy dash. The main event went to Cortney Welch, Mike Porzio and Roger Girdner. Mike Pawsey won the semi-main with Robby Viley second and Jimmie Bingaman third.

The junior main event went to Gene Yamamoto, Eddie Estey and Ricky Hamilton. Heat winners were Cortney Welch, Mike Pawsey, Punky Reed and Mike Wyrick.

Lonnie Patterson set the fast time in the "B" class while Randy Brogden won the trophy dash. Main event winners were Randy Brogden and Hank Hamilton. Semi-main went to David Peppin, Larry Patton and Mike Hampton. Rippy Curry won the junior main with Gene Engle second and David Estey third. Heat winners were Lonnie Patterson, Hank Hamilton, Larry Patton and Ricky Hamilton.

Expect Crowd At First-Run L. A. Surf Fair

More than 20,000 southland surfing enthusiasts are expected to attend the "First Annual Los Angeles Surf Fair and Mid Winter Surfing Championships" to be held Thursday and Friday, Dec. 27 and 28 at Santa Monica Civic Auditorium.

The giant two-day long surfing festival will feature everything from the latest styles and colors in surfboards to perfectly restored ancient station wagons that look newer now than when they were first sold.

Film lovers will be treated to continuous showings of the finest surf films ever made, regularly scheduled stage shows will feature popular singing groups, folk singers, comics and a teenage band.

For those who like action at high pitched level, some of the greatest surfers in the world will be competing in the Santa Monica Mid-Winter Surfing Championships. Competition will be open to all surfers and action will be split up into age groups with separate contests going on for both men and women.

Ella Stars In Concert

Ella Fitzgerald, "First Lady of Popular Song," will be presented in concert Friday Night, Jan. 4 at the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium. Concert is under the aegis of John L. Horn Associates.

This will be Ella Fitzgerald's "bon voyage" concert in Southern California before she leaves on her extended tour to the capitals of the world.

Included in her concert itinerary are Rome, Paris, Berlin, Stockholm — and performances behind the Iron Curtain. After she leaves Europe, Ella will travel to South America, Australia and Japan.
