Baritone on Program at Civic Event

Top rated actor-baritone David Daniels, who brings to life the crippled and embittered puppet-master of "Carnival," smash hit Broadway musical coming to Santa Monica Civic Auditorium Jan. 9 and 10, matured his talents in major operatic and Broadway roles. His Broadway performance in "Plain and Fancy" won him both the Donaldson and Theater World Awards. On tour and in summer stock, critics saluted his rising star in "Pajama Game," "Call Me Madam," "The Great Waltz," "Brigadoon," "Wish You Were Here" and "Damn Yankees."

In the background of David's success is solid preparation — a musical education at St. Paul Academy, at Yale University and the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia, singing with the St. Paul Civic Opera and the Minneapolis Symphony, acting in television dramas, recorded albums of musical comedy hits, co-starring on the summer circuit with Shelley Berman "Where's Charlie?"

Big Array of Boats at Show

Hundreds of late model boats and thousands of marine accessories will be unveiled for the 1963 boating season during the 10-day run of the Seventh Annual Southern California Marine Association's Boat Show, opening Jan. 18, at Los Angeles Pan Pacific Auditorium.

Boats in this giant, all-industry showcase — the biggest in the west — will range from tiny dinghies, rowboats and sailing craft, to all types of outboard and inboard boats up to sleek $40,000 cruisers. They are built of wood, steel, plastic, fiberglass and even aluminum.
