Next Unit of Flood Channel To Be Started

The County Flood Control District expects the next unit of the Dominguez Channel flood control improvement to be advertised for bids this spring, Supervisor Burton W. Chace reported this week.

Site of the project will run in the channel from Wilmington-Ave., to Avalon Blvd.

The Board of Supervisors has authorized the district to pay an estimated $135,500 to Mobil Oil Co. as part of the cost of relocating its pipelines.

Improvement of the channel will require acquisition of additional strips of right-of-way along both sides of the channel, Supervisor Chace said.

Total improvement of the 18-mile Dominguez Channel is being undertaken in units as funds become available. The entire project is expected to cost more than $20 million, Chace added.

Who's Where on New Year's Eve

THE PLUSH HORSE—again on Pacific Coast Hwy., says its best will be in the Banbury Room, where Eddie Baxter still holds court by popular demand after a six-week run. Dinner, champagne and Eddie Baxter assure that the New Year's Evening at the Plush Horse will be a success.

THE PARASOL—Pacific Coast Hwy. at Crenshaw, tells us they'll have a combo to add to their fun from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

THE PEN AND QUILL—Pacific Coast Hwy. in Manhattan Beach, will feature the popular "Eligibles," Mercury recording artists backed by a seven-piece band.

THE POLYNESIAN—another night-spot on the Pacific Coast "Gay-Way," features Tani Marsh and the Islandaikes as their New Year's Eve treat. Reservations, please!

SCHROEDER'S RESTAURANT—El Segundo just east of Western, promises a real "cool combo"—"Ahra" at the piano; Jim Stefferud on bass and Dempsey Guana on drums. All this and hats and noisemakers too! Special holiday dinner service from 12 noon.

THE SILVER SKATES RESTAURANT—Western Avenue at 238th, reminds us that we can watch California's latest fun-fad—the Moccasin Dance—at the Olympic Ice Arena, through the glass wall of their dining room, which overlooks the full sheet of ice. Hats, noisemakers and favors will be provided.

TIKI-KAI—famous for "Exotic cocktails," will welcome in the New Year in the Polynesian manner—with horns, noisemakers and wacky hats. No cover charge or minimum!

MR. T.G.'s—W. Imperial at Prairie in Inglewood, promises a surprise entertainment group to help Harry Hellings and his quartet entertain Mr. T.G.'s New Year's Eve guests.

So pick your spot and whoop it up! Laugh, drink and be merry, for tomorrow is 1963—then call a taxi to take you home!
