

A Bird's Eye View of 'Apollo'

CHRISTENING their "dream" upon completion, worker Bob Vroman and others break out champagne.

LOFTY PERCH doesn't worry John Jurco and son, Tom, 15, both of 4718 Darien St. They're regulars on decoration committee.

BUS DRIVER Doyle Townson finds his duties don't end when workers are delivered to Pasadena quonset hut, where final decorating is completed.

FLORAL SPLENDOR finds its best expression in overall view of quonset hut where decorating for the 714th annual Tournament of Roses parade was undertaken night prior to parade. Prize-winning Quaker Oats float (with eagle head) is in foreground.

STICKY JOB confronts Florence LeGer, one of nearly 75 persons who participate in decorating the New Year's Day float.

INSIDE LOOK at Torrance float is taken by Bob Billups of Monrovia, who was selected as driver.