ROBERT SANFORD

Robert Sanford, of 4501 Palos Verdes Drive North, Rolling Hills, has been elected president of the Associated Student Organization of Los Angeles Harbor College.

A major in advertising, specializing in motivational research, Sanford won the post in a run-off election against Tom Fehn. He succeeds Jean Heisner.

Other ASO officers elected are Shirley Holland, vice president; James Van Zee, director of men's athletics; Sandy Cotran, director of women's athletics; Sandy Pierce, Associated Women Students president; Wilbur Miller, Freshman Class president; Ron Nelson, Sophomore Class president.

The ASO council will fill other council vacancies through appointment. All the newly-elected officers will be installed Feb. 14.

Christmas Seal Honors Workers

Volunteer efforts by individuals, organizations and public service groups to the Christmas Seal organization throughout the year will be acknowledged at an informal award session, Thursday, Jan. 31, at the Tuberculosis and Health Assn., 1670 Beverly Blvd.

Harold P. Levy, president of the voluntary health agency, said official recognition and presentation of awards will be given from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Members of the Christmas Seal agency's board of directors are hosts. Reservations may be made by calling the Tuberculosis and Health Assn. at 483-3220.

C of C Publishes Buyer's Guide

The Chamber of Commerce has published 25,000 Torrance Buyer's Guides, which contain a street map and an alphabetical index to the city's streets.

Businesses are listed under 17 classifications: Entertainment; Automotive; Construction; Banks; Real Estate and Insurance; Manufacturers; Professional; Utilities; Newspapers; Printing; Restaurants; Motels; Retailers; Wholesalers and Distributors; Services; Transportation; and Diversified.

358 TRAFFIC DEATHS

The National Safety Council reported 358 traffic deaths during 72 hours of the 1963 New Year's holiday in the nation. During the same period of time the Los Angeles County Heart Assn. estimates 8,268 Americans died of heart disease.

RHEUMATIC FEVER
As a result of medical research, rheumatic fever, a childhood menace and a forerunner of rheumatic heart disorders, can now be prevented.
