A new week — and new talent! Andy Coulti, who brings his quartet — "The Gigolos," to the Bowl-O-Drome's Fun Room this week, tells me that on a recent trip through Texas, he passed through three towns named Alice, Comfort and Lorrain, in that order. In the town of Comfort was a Motel with a sign which read: "Sleep in Comfort between Alice and Lorrain!"

I can't recommend this new group too highly. Direct from the Prelude Club in Hollywood, The Gigolos promise to keep things jumpin' for the next four weeks at the Fun Room — that's at the Bowl-O-Drome on Western Avenue.

Another new talent, appearing at the Polynesian, on Pacific Coast Highway, is Tani Marsh who has done extensive choreography and dancing for both movies and TV. Tani says her greatest distinction on TV is the fact that she is about the only Hawaiian dancer in Southern California who hasn't appeared on the Hawaiian Eye program.

For the family trade, The Pizza Palace, Sepulveda at Hawthorne is providing a new top rated act. This will be "in-addition-to," instead of "in-place-of" their regular weekend piano and banjo "Knucklebusters" act.

The Pizza Palace is about the only place in the Southland where mom, dad and the kids can go out for a night of dinner and entertainment together. This new five man band of Johnny Lucos and his Dixieland All Stars, which will appear Wednesday and Thursday nights from 8 p.m. to midnight, comes from an extended stay at the Green Bowl in Hermosa Beach where they played to many a full house.

If you think that is a new banjo in the weekend "Knucklebusters" duo at the Pizza Palace — you're right! Maury Walker, known from such spots as "23 Skidoo" and "Rosie's Red Banjo," teams up with regular Rodger Sandborn to form the popular "Knucklebuster" team.

Bob Meyers, bar manager in the Smugglers Cove at the Palos Verde Bowl, was asking, "Did you ever notice how well balanced things are? For every father that is teaching his son to be thrifty, there is a mother teaching her daughters to be extravagant."

Ray Bell, owner and chef at that ever popular spot in downtown Torrance — The Palms, tells the story about the restaurant that opened in Long Beach last year and closed in less than thirty days. The disappointed owner left a sign in the empty window that read — "opened by mistake!"

A sign that really deserves a chuckle is the one hanging in a Torrance machine shop. It says, "Girls, if your sweater is too large for you, look out for the machines. If you are too large for your sweater, look out for the machinists." Honestly, Jay, did you really see such a sign?

Kayce Kendrick, the female type scribe from the Olympic Arena offers this piece of sage advice: "Never trust your wife's judgment. After all, look who she married!"

It appears we have started a trend with our closing paragraphs in the last two week's columns — "Daffy Definitions of Marriage." Another sent in by a reader this week is — Marriage: An attempt to change a night owl into a homing pigeon.

To all night owls — and all homing pigeons at large — see you after five!

JOHNNY LUCAS and his Dixielanders who came to the Pizza Palace, Sepulveda at Hawthorne, this week and will be appearing every Wednesday and Thursday night 8 p.m. to midnight. They promise to be a great hit with mom and the kids in this popular family approved night spot.

SKATING ON THIN ICE

With Kayce Kendrick

For a real treat, hop out of bed early and watch the Broadmoor Skating Club from Colorado Springs work out.

Several members have reserved ice time to practice during the week before the Long Beach Nationals. They and 10 a.m. during the week of Feb. 4 through Feb. 8. Should be worth getting up early to see these kids.

Well, Mrs. Coupland, that was some SPLAT you made out there—and on the very day I had told the world how great you are.

That nice young Bobby Harris that is instructing you all couldn't possibly be will practice between 7 a.m. that young. This boy has performed with the Ice Cycles, Ice Capades, Ice Capades International, Schulte Revue, and Sonja Henie.
