Torrance Health Center Volunteers Recognized

Sandpipers of Manhattan Beach and the Episcopal Church Women's Club of St. Francis Episcopal Church, 2200 Via Rosa, Palos Verdes Estates, were awarded certificates of appreciation by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors.

The presentations were made on March 20 at the Community Health Week Luncheon, Biltmore Hotel, Los Angeles.

These awards were received in recognition of volunteer community service at the child health and maternity clinics of the Los Angeles County Health Department, announced Dr. E. W. Kendrick, district health officer, Torrance.

Mrs. George Junkind, 268 Rocky Point Rd., Palos Verdes Estates, accepted the awards on behalf of both organizations.

As a volunteer sponsored by the Episcopal Women's Club, she has donated over 200 hours to the prenatal clinics, conducted for mothers who cannot afford private medical care, at the Torrance Health Center, 2300 W. Carson St., Torrance.

The club was awarded recognition for 500 hours of volunteer service.

Other volunteers sponsored by St. Francis Church are Mrs. Albin P. Davis and Mrs. William Smith. Each helps in the well-baby clinics of the Torrance Health District.

One of the major awards presented by the County Board of Supervisors went to the Sandpipers, Mrs. John Grimes, president.

An award for 2000 hours volunteer service in the baby clinics held at 217 Beryl St., Redondo Beach, was made to the organization. Mrs. Clarice Koebell is recruitment chairman.

"The Essence of it All" is a story of the work being done in the new Hadassah Hospital in Israel, including cancer research now being done in the hospital.

Hostesses will be Mmes. Myron Katz and Frank Goetz.

PTA News

TREASURE HUNTING

"Anza Goes Treasure Hunting Through Music" will be theme of tomorrow evening's meeting of Anza PTA at the school cafeteria.

The Mother singers will sing the inspirational "Now the Day is Over" preceding a demonstration of music in the classroom by Philip Korman, principal. Mr. Korman will be assisted by a portion of the Anza chorus group.

A novel experience will be the demonstration by the "B" band of a typical rehearsal of notes and what sounds can be accomplished by a beginning band. The "B" band is under the direction of Frank Snyder, music instructor at Anza.

Closing selections of the evening of music will be given by the mother singers. A board meeting was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. M. R. Davison.

Projects discussed were the planting of an evergreen ash tree on Arbor Day and the bicycle safety program to be held at 10 a.m. April 3. It was announced that Mrs. Davison will preside at president of the PTA for the remaining school year because of the resignation of Mrs. J. Moore, who is moving from the area.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Girl Scouts, Brownies and Cub Scouts presented the program at the Halldale Ave. PTA meeting Tuesday, March 12. Mrs. Ridgey Pearson, youth services chairman, was in charge of the program.
