Dayton Boys' Choir To Perform Locally

The Dayton (O.) Rotary Boys' Choir performs in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church, 119 Torrance Blvd., Redondo Beach, at 8 p.m. the evening of Tuesday, April 9.

The boys are from the ages of 11 to 18 and comprise one of the finest choirs in the nation. They will be observing the 20th anniversary as they perform the great music of Easter on this night.

The choir's director, S. Norman Park, is also supervisor of music in the Dayton Public Schools. Glenn F. Hawley, a former student of Park, and now director of music at South High in music at the church, said the concert is open to all without an admission charge.

"We look forward to an evening of enjoyment," said Hawley, "and inspiration as
