

There's more of everything DOWN

This special page of advertisements, devoted to the downtown merchants, shows the many business establishments centralized in the downtown area for the shopper's convenience. The advantages of shopping downtown are many, including the complete variety of stores you find there.

Lower prices of name brand merchandise is possible because of the lower overhead enjoyed by the downtown merchants and these savings passed along to the shoppers.

Soon, a program of "revitalization" will start to change our town and make it a more attractive business area. The changes include widening of the streets and razing of some older buildings to provide more parking for customers' convenience.
