

EXAMINING PRIZES to be presented at the "Friendship in Fashions," fashion show luncheon by St. Catherine Labouré Women's Council, are Mmes. Kenneth Thompson; Irven-Gleason, special arrangements chairman; Jerry Sullivan, door prize chairman; George Pleick, fashion co-ordinator. The event will take place at 1 p.m. Sunday, May 19, at the Pen and Quill Hotel, Manhattan Beach.

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Friendship in Fashion Is Luncheon Theme

"Friendship in Fashions" will be theme of the ninth annual luncheon and fashion show presented by the St. Catherine Labouré Council of Catholic Women on Sunday, May 19, 1963 at the Pen and Quill Hotel, 3501 N. Sepulveda Blvd. in Manhattan Beach.

The event will begin with a social hour at 1 p.m. Luncheon and fashion show will be at 2 p.m.

Planning afternoon of fun with fashions for an anticipated 500 guests is Mrs. Vincent Tremblay, chairman, and Mrs. Carl Metzler, co-chairman.

Mrs. George Pleick fashion coordinator, has arranged for fashions to be furnished by well known local shops and modeled by members of the council. Included in the ensembles will be children's and teen's fashions.

A musical program, entitled "International Friendship," will be presented during intermission under the direction of Mrs. Louis Fitzgerald. The program will feature children from the St. Catherine Labouré School enacting customs and songs from many lands. Organ accompaniment will be provided by Mrs. Walter Hanf.

The afternoon will conclude with the awarding of the grand door prize of three days and two nights at the Thunderbird Hotel in fabulous Las Vegas. Other special prizes will also be awarded during the event.

Tickets may be purchased from ticket chairmen Mrs.

Carl Lascheck, DA 9-6950 or Mrs. Douglas White, DA 9-2424.

Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Ernest Simon, OS 5-5869 or Mrs. William Touth, DA 4-8611. Seating will be by reservation only.

Committee chairmen assisting with the event are: Mmes. Raymond Gordon, program; Lewis Gleason, advertising; Chris Galichon, publicity; William Touth, fashion editor and George Itner, patrons.

Other chairmen are Mmes. Chuck Glomboske, hostesses; Jerry Sullivan, door prizes; Irvin Gleason, special arrangements; Frank Mauro, wardrobe and Kenneth Thompson.

Proceeds from the fashion show will be used to help pay the parish debt.

Marionettes to Perform Locally

The Bob Baker Marionette will bring the excitement of imaginative puppetry to local audiences, under the auspices of the Torrance Cooperative Nursery School Sunday, April 28.

Performances will be at 2 p.m. and at 4 p.m., at the Torrance Recreation Center, Madrona and Torrance Blvd.

Admission will be $1 per adult and 75 cents per child. Tickets may be purchased by calling FR 5-1032, or 371-1656.

Utilizing theatre-in-the-round technique, the Bob Baker Marionette Show provides a dramatic theatrical experience, not only for children, but for parents as well, according to Mrs. William Susreff, president of the cooperative nursery school.

Torrance Nursery School is sponsored by the adult education division of Torrance Unified School System, and consists of a two-fold program - morning nursery school for pre-schoolers, and evening lectures for parents on the pre-school child and his world.

Mrs. Alvin Kaye, director of the school, plans program for children from three to five, four morning a week, Monday through Thursday. The school is located at 4558 W. 182nd, near Hawthorne Blvd.

Membership information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Richard Jones, DA 5-1756.

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS will be honored by the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club at a mother-daughter banquet to be held Monday evening at the Mariner Lodge in Lomita. Three generations in one family planning to attend the event are: (l-r) Susan Gottlieb, 4; Mrs. Mary Sirott; Mrs. Ziggy Gottlieb; Mrs. Elizabeth Gottlieb; and Nancy Lee Gottlieb, 4. —PRESS photo

Twins Club Honors Moms, Daughters

Highlighting the mother-daughter banquet of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Clubs Monday evening at the Mariner Lodge in Lomita will be presentation by Mrs. Glen Smith, president of $500 check to Mrs. Evelyn Rorabaugh, acting director of the Harbor Area Retarded Children's Foundation.

"We are very pleased," says Mrs. Smith, "to contribute to the Foundation these proceeds from our recent highly successful Fashion Show."

PLAN POTLUCK

Torrance Lioness Club will hold a potluck Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John Ritchie, 28930 Alvarez Drive Palos Verdes Estates. Mrs. Abe Robinson will assist the hostess.

Installation will take place May 11 at Lococo's. Committee members are: Mrs. Milton Isbell, chairman; William King, Fred Borenn, Clarence Clark, Walter Kerberlein and Peter Radisich, ion Parade. This is the second consecutive year we have selected the foundation as our main philanthropy as we believe they are doing such and outstanding job with these children."

The funds will be used to purchase supplies and equipment for the school's activity center.

Over 60 daughters, mothers and grandmothers are expected to attend the club's traditional affair at which four specially designated mothers and daughters will be honored with carnation corsages.

Mrs. Ronald Eisman, decorations chairman, will carry out the Mother-Daughter theme with springtime bouquets at each table.

Presenting candidates to be elected in May will be Mrs. John Adams, nominations chairman.

The Harbor Lites, barber-shop quartet from South Bay, will entertain, according to Mrs. Richard Cassell, social chairman.

Any mother of twins or triplets interested in further membership information may contact Mrs. Ronald Eisman of Torrance.

Women Voters To Study County

County government will be topic of study at a series of unit meetings to be held next week by the Torrance League of Women Voters, according to Mrs. James Hawkins, chairman.

Emphasis will be placed on juvenile facilities and the tax appeal board.

Resource committee members include: Mmes. James Ries, L. O. MacDonald, J. R.

Hodes, and J. E. Anderson.

Meetings will take place as follows: 9:45 a.m. Monday, April 15, 416 Via Linda Vita; 7:45 p.m. Monday, 2911 W. 168th St.; 7:45 p.m. Tuesday, 20545 Vaccaro; 9:15 a.m. Wednesday, 2926 Sonoma St.; 7:45 p.m. Thursday, 401 Avenida de Jose.

Hostesses will be: Mmes. Frank Adair, Barton Peters; James Laird, Burton Belzer and Stanley Lieber.

Art Winners To Be Named

State judging of the annual GFWC-CFWC art talent contest will be Thursday at the South Ebell Clubhouse, 7107 Menlo Ave., Los Angeles.

"The American Vision," is theme for this year's competition. Winning picture will be sent on to the General Federation of Women's Clubs for final judging with other winners from all of the 50 states.

A $600 college scholarship will be presented to the three national winners by Hall Mark cards and eight scholarships will go to top state winners. The contest is for senior high school students, graduating in June, 1963.

Pictures will be on exhibition from 2 to 3 p.m., after the judging.

Its annual "potluck" dinner at 6:30 p.m., in the school cafeteria, according to Mrs. Joseph Kettering, program chairman.

El Camino College choral group will provide special music at the March meeting.

Delegates elected at the March meeting to represent the unit at the 33rd District convention in Santa Monica are: Mrs. Ralph Spurlock, Sr., president-elect; Mrs. Clayton Bowen; Mrs. Arvin Potter; and Mrs. Al Golds.

A tour of the Long Beach Goddard Industries was conducted recently for parents and friends. Following the tour, lunch was served.

SEWING CLOTHES which they will model in Hillside PTA's fifth annual home-sewing fashion show are: (l-r) Mmes. Jack E. Klasila, ticket chairman; Beryl P. Gutridge, publicity chairman; and A. B. Eisenberg, chairman. The show will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, April 18, in the Hillside school cafeteria, 25600 Crenshaw Blvd. Tickets will be available at the door. Persons desiring advance reservations are asked to phone DA 6-0984.

—PRESS photo

PTA News

DEDICATION

Dedication ceremonies and open house were held March 13 at the new Torrance Elementary School, 2125 Lincoln Ave.

Special guests were Dr. Hull and members of the board of education.

Following a speech by Dr. Hull, Stanley Roberts, principal formally accepted the new facility and Cynthia Weister, student council president, spoke. Faculty members were introduced by Dr. Hull.

Refreshments were sold by eighth grade students to raise money for their graduation party.

Elected to serve as PTA officers for the ensuing year were:

Mrs. Earl Carter, president; Mrs. E. Friberg, first vice president; Mrs. M. Dull, second vice president; Stanley Roberts, third vice president; and Mmes. P. P. Henninger, fourth vice president; R. A. Scarborough, recording secretary; T. Bray, corresponding secretary; W. F. Stull, treasurer; R. L. Preston, historian; and G. L. Sealey, auditor.

BREEZING ALONG

Newton PTA unit meeting will be at 8 p.m. Thursday, day in the school cafeteria. Program, "Breezing Along With Adjectives and Adverbs," will feature an old-fashioned spelling bee. Contestants will be chosen from grades three through eight, with parents as opponents.

Flag salute will be led by Brownie Troop No. 236. Hostesses for the event will be second grade mothers.

Newton school will hold its Science Fair Tuesday through Friday. Winning exhibits will be displayed at the PTA unit meeting.

Kindergarten enrollment for fall semester will be between April 15 and 30. Enrollment blanks are available at the office.

Mrs. Ivan Bluemel, safety chairman, will conduct a bicycle, rodeo April 25, at 9 a.m. for grades 3 to 8 at Newton School. Mrs. Bluemel will administer written tests, and local firemen will assist in performance tests. Licenses will be awarded to student who successfully complete the tests. Mrs. Bluemel will show a film of Newton students and their bicycle habits at the April unit meeting.

COLUMBIA POTLUCK

Columbia PTA will hold