

EXAMINING PICTURE to be displayed at the annual art reception of the Dianos tomorrow evening are (l-r) Mmes. Earl Duke, Joseph Carrier, James McPheis, chairman, and Raymond Williams. The event will be at 7:30 p.m. at the South Bay Art Gallery, 104 Coral Way, Redondo Beach. —PRESS photo

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Dianas Set Reception

South Bay Art Gallery, 104 Coral Way, Redondo Beach, will be the setting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow for the Dianos annual art award reception, which is being conducted in conjunction with the seniors.

High school students art work will be displayed and prizes awarded, according to Mrs. James McPherson, Diana Art Chairman.

Refreshments will be served by Mmes. John Hansford, William Curry, Ronald Deckert, and Paul Harris.

Dianas are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership.

MRS. DOUGLAS J. HOLMBERG ... former Helen Faye Todd (photo by Seeman)

Helen Todd Weds Douglas Holmberg

Miss Helen Faye Todd, daughter of Mrs. Jack Todd of 906 Belson St., Torrance, became the bride of Douglas J. Holmberg, son of Mrs. Irene Holmberg of 515 E. 219th St., Torrance in a double-ring ceremony performed at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, March 30 at the Wayfarers Chapel, Portuguese Bend, Palos Verdes.

Rev. Kenneth W. Knox performed the candlelight ceremony.

Given in marriage by her brother, Kenneth Todd, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white lace over satin. The fitted lace bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline and long sleeves. Her shoulder length veil cascaded from a pearl sequin crown. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and carnations.

Mrs. Shirley Neal, matron-of-honor for her sister, was attired in traditional dress of pink lace over satin with a full skirt. Her cascade bouquet was of pink carnations. The bride's mother chose a mint-green sheath dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother selected a blue ensemble.

Wedding music featured "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me," and "Because."

Lance Holmberg was best man. Ushers were Greg Holmberg, Joe Redmond and Pat Neal.

Following the wedding a reception took place at 2747 Cabrillo Ave., Torrance. Attending the guest book was Mrs. Carol Papst. Serving were: Mmes. Linda Rotgaber, Hannah Remeika, and Edna Lanchar.

The couple are at home in Torrance after a Santa Barbara honeymoon.

A graduate of Narbonne High School, the bride is employed by West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co.

The bridegroom, who served four years in the Marine Corps, is affiliated with Pastushin Industries.

Area Girl Takes Design Honors

Inez Mateo, daughter of Charles Mateo of 213 1/2 E. "N" St., Wilmington, captured two awards and the tenth annual gold thimble awards fashion show at Los Angeles Trade-Technical College, March 27.

She took second place silver thimble honors in the men's shirts category for her design "The Nassau Islander" and third place for "The Skybolt."

Winning clothing designs were selected from a field of 68 original designs created by the students in the fashion design classes of Los Angeles Trade-Technical College's apparel arts department.

Purpose of the annual Gold Thimble Awards Fashion Show is to encourage development of designing talent in costume design classes at the college and to aid in the placement of students in the field of their special talent, according to Mrs. Viola Johnson, head of the college's Apparel Arts Department.

ment and originator of the show.

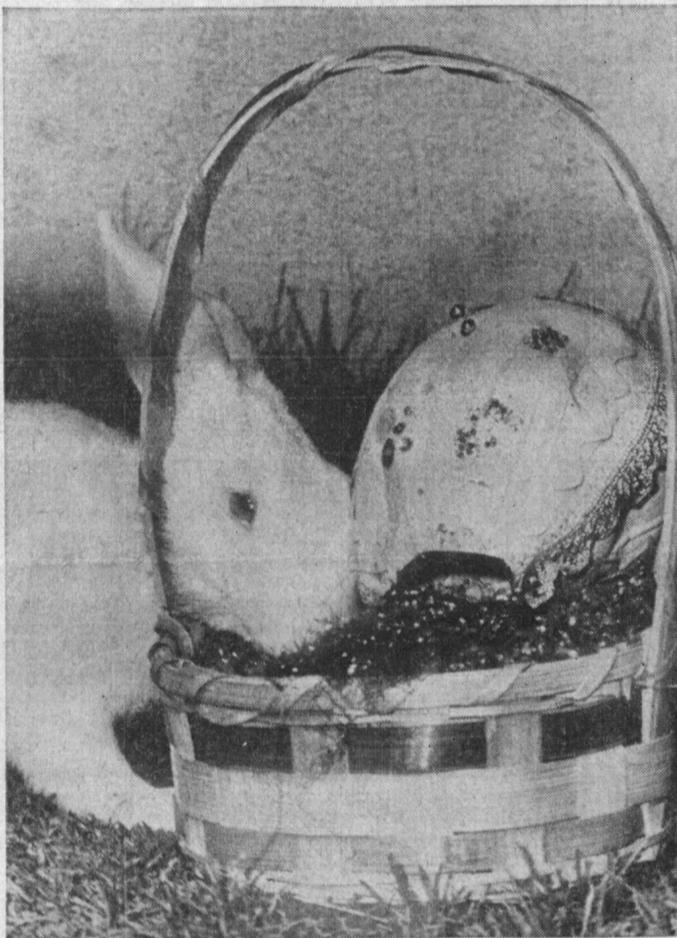

Preparation for the show began in the fall of last year when each design student submitted three sketches of original design in each of the six classifications.

Preliminary contests were held where leading Los Angeles professional designers were invited to select the 10 to 15 top designs, in each classification. These top designs were then made up by the apparel students, and the clothes were all modeled at a public showing March 29.

TO ATTEND CONFAB

Little Company of Mary Hospital Medical Library will be represented by Mrs. Lyle Peters (Hollywood Riviera) auxiliary medical librarian at the 39th Annual Convention of the Catholic Library Association.

The convention will be held at the Ambassador Hotel, Los Angeles, Tuesday through Friday.

BUNNIES AND BASKETS of Easter eggs are the order of the day as youngsters feast on frosted favors at festive parties, hunt for hidden eggs in the hinterlands, and bite bunnies—chocolate ones, that is—throughout Torrance homes this Easter Sunday.

No mere holiday hare, Snowball, pictured above, is the permanent pet of the five children of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clary of 4828 Highgrove Ave., Torrance—Diane, Patty, Susan, Melody and Billy.

—PRESS photo

Torrance Sorority Joins Area Council

Alpha Alpha Omega Chapter, Torrance, became the eleventh chapter to join the South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi sorority at a meeting held recently at the Alondra Club.

Mrs. Andrew Foster, president, introduced Mrs. Lee McPheeters, transferee; Mmes. Lindy Bush, Tommy Clenver, Bill Kato, Frank Humphries, Carol Fallon, and Paul Gregor, new members; and Mrs. Peggy Ball and Miss Patricia McGovern, president elect, Compton City Council, advisors.

The traditional yellow rose was presented to the new chapter as a greeting from the council.

Other guests introduced were: Charlene Bertwick, prospective member, Virginia Kerns, transferee from Missouri, and Ruth Conn, visitor from the San Fernando Valley Council.

Highlighting the evening's meeting was the election of officers for the 1963-1964 term.

Elected to serve are Mmes. Bert Whited, president; Milt Ventress, vice president; Jay Echelberger, recording secretary; Gene Olson, corresponding secretary, and Robert Kane, treasurer.

The new board was presented to the members and Mrs. Whited announced her new committee chairmen at the close of the meeting as follows: Directory chairman, Mrs. Harry Jacobsen; historian, Mrs. James Barnhart, and civil defense officer, Mrs. Art Setzer.

The new officers will be installed at a formal installation at the May 7th council meeting.

A vote of thanks was extended to the three Tellers, Mmes. C. F. Chowenhill, Delta Chi; Harry Jacobsen, Xi Kappa Eta, and Jack Cronander, Rho Xi.

Executive board meeting will be held tomorrow for members of the incoming and outgoing boards at the home of Mrs. Foster.

Trophies to be given to the winners of the achievement and scrapbook winners for ritual and exemplar were displayed.

Plans were made to attend the Beta Sigma Phi state convention to be held May 3, 4 and 5 at Fresno.

Hostesses for the evening were Rho Epsilon Chapter members.

Harbor Hospital Auxiliary to Install

Mrs. Joseph Jay will be invested as president of the Harbor General Hospital Volunteers Auxiliary at a dinner to be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Jumpin' Jack Restaurant, Torrance.

Other officers to be inducted are: Mmes. G. F. Quirose, first vice president; Robert March, second vice president; Edward Ball, third vice president; Emil Buyny, treasurer; and John C. Betts, recording secretary.

Installing officer will be Mrs. Marguerite Broen McAllister, chief of patients service.

Guests will include husbands, hospital administrators and hospital personnel.

Decorations for tables will carry a pink and white flower theme.

Following dinner, Patsy Montana and a group from Manhattan Beach Womens Club will present a variety revue show.

Volunteers Auxiliary recently donated three remote control portable television sets for use of hospital patients.

Members of the Volunteers Auxiliary, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Groh, staff and maintain the new gift shop. Handmade items from the volunteers project workshop are available for purchase at the shop. Mrs. Henry Shapter is workshop chairman. Proceeds are used for patients services, supplies for beauty and shaving detail and materials for patients' use in occupational therapy.

PTA News

MUSIC FESTIVAL

Highlighting the program at a meeting of Yukon PTA to be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday will be a music festival featuring the school orchestra and chorus under the direction of R. P. Fisher, music teacher, and a square dance to be presented by fifth and sixth grade students of Mrs. Mort Hesse.

Theme will be "Learn from Our Children."

Following inspirational by Robert White, YMCA board of managers representative, safety will be discussed by Officer Don Hartell of the Torrance Safety Council.

Featured chairmen will be Mrs. Melvin Schaltz, music, and Mrs. Louis Argabright, magazines.

Mothers of rooms 2 and 15 will serve as hostesses. Arrangements will be handled by Mrs. Hugh Hilger, teacher's breakfast chairman; and Mrs. Clyde Clanin, board luncheon chairman.

Election plans are being formulated by a committee headed by Mrs. James Halzlip, legislation chairman.

Robbins, financial secretary; Fred Mautner, treasurer; Robert Suskin, sentinel-guardian; Max Ringel, Sherrin Beiser, Beryl Averbuck and Robert Salka, trustees; and Barry Gerson, counselor.

Representing Yukon PTA at the April TEAC luncheon were: Mmes. Donald Greenwood, Edward Merooian, Clyde Clanin, Fred Arney, Clifford Tierney and Richard Brown.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Election of officers highlighted the annual convention meeting of Los Angeles Tenth District PTA held recently at Airport Junior High School. Vice presidents elected were Mmes. Ken Kozasa, first; James Keating, third; Warren Steinberg, fifth, and John Credille, seventh. Also elected were Mmes. E. John Shield, recording secretary; D. W. TenEyck, auditor; John Blackmon, Harbor regional director, and Howard Heintz, Northwest regional director.

Mrs. John R. Gaydowski, presided over the meeting, which featured Dr. Milton Babitz, consultant in adult education for the State Department of Education, as guest speaker.

Robert L. Hawkins, principal of the school, and Mrs. L. F. Gunderson, president of Airport PTA, welcomed members and guests.

The school choir presented a musical program concluding with community singing.

Author to Address Convention

Les Ashford, minister of Del Amo Christian Church, Torrance, announces that W. Cleon Skousen will be featured speaker on the Saturday evening session of the North American Christian Convention in Long Beach, June 29.

Mr. Skousen was born in Raymond, Alberta, Canada, and attended school in Canada, Mexico, and the United States. He was admitted to practice law in the District of Columbia. While in law school, he entered the FBI to become a member of the faculty of Brigham Young University. He has served as chief of police of Salt Lake City.

His newest book, So You Want to Raise a Boy?, deals with the field of youth problems. He has been on the board of directors of the International Juvenile Officers Association.

Joel Rivers, minister of the Lomita Christian Church, is serving as the Southwest Los Angeles information director for the convention. The National Christian education Convention, June 26 and 30, will meet jointly with the North American Christian Convention.

B'nai B'rith To View Wigs

The Hollypark B'nai B'rith Women's first meeting of the new club year will be held at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow, at Great Western Savings and Loan, Rosecrans and Purche, Gardena. The meeting will feature Richard De Nuccio, hair designer and owner of De Nuccio's Beauty Salon in Gardena, who will show the latest in women's wigs.

All interested women of the community are invited to attend. Persons desiring further information are asked to contact Mrs. Herbert Schwartz, president of the chapter, at FA 1-5439.

tion was held Saturday night, April 6, at the Cockatoo Inn.

Mrs. James Greenhoot, incoming first vice president of the B'nai B'rith Women's Greater Los Angeles Council, was installing officer. She was assisted by Mrs. Ralph Miller, a past president of the chapter.

Officers installed were Mmes. Herbert Schwartz, president; Paul Klein, Perry Strauss and Gerald Holzberg, first, second and third vice presidents respectively; Milton Sapperstein and B. Finger, corresponding secretaries; Charles Stearns, recording secretary; Bernard