SYMBOLIC of the presidency of the El Camino College Faculty Association is the gavel presented to retiring president Dick Schwartzman to Mrs. Grace Edwards, who will head the group in 1963-64.

Mrs. Grace Edwards Slated to Head El Camino Faculty

President of the El Camino College Faculty Association for the coming year will be Mrs. Grace M. Edwards, drafting instructor, who accepted the gavel from Richard C. Schwartzman, retiring president, this week.

Serving with Mrs. Edwards, a Torrance resident, will be John Hampton and Harry Perry, first and second vice presidents, respectively. Richard W. Dickinson, a psychology instructor and assistant basketball coach, will assume the post of secretary. Phil Seitz, law and business instructor and counselor, will fill the office of Treasurer.

Representing the Faculty Association at the California Teachers' Association will be Miss Dorothy Westgate, radio-electronics instructor,

South High Teacher Gets 2nd Scholarship

Dean Spande, a science teacher at South High School has been awarded a scholarship to UCLA for the second consecutive year by the National Science Foundation. Spande was one of 30 chosen from a field of 350 applicants on the basis of experience, background, and potential. He will study "Concepts of Modern Chemistry."

Last year Spande was awarded a similar scholarship by the National Science Foundation in the field of "Ecology of Vertebrates—Plant and Animal Cell Physiology" at Long Beach State College.

and Hampton, both serving second terms. Clyde Mitchell, of the division of engineering and mathematics, and Mrs. Mary Y. Erickson, business instructor, will be ECC representatives to the Junior College Association, South West Region.

Retiring officers are Schwartzman, president; Mrs. Edwards, vice president; Robert Haag, secretary and Willie Suzuki, treasurer.

In addressing the association over which she will preside for the coming year, Mrs. Edwards said, "We, the faculty at El Camino College, have a responsibility to our students and the community which they represent. We teach these young minds around us specifics with words and devices in the classroom. We also teach by the image we present as a faculty—as a group—in the way in which we solve our problems."

Mrs. Edwards continued, "Any group of 260 or so individuals is not likely to reach agreement on very much of anything. But, if we keep in overview our responsibility to our students and the community, our internal differences will be resolved more easily. It is up to us to present an image of solidarity, of mature thinking, and of positive action."

"To continue to improve this image is my goal for the ensuing year, and I believe that I speak as well for the officers who will serve you with me," the new president concluded.

TORRANCE TILESETTING TITLIST BECOMES A JOURNEYMAN

Leonard A. Gildy, 17913 St. Andrews Pl., apprentice ceramic tile setting champion, will be one of 16 young men graduated to journeyman status on June 7 at Tile Layers Local 18 Union Hall, 1124 W. 24th St., Los Angeles.

Gildy, an employe of the Hawthorne Tile Co., won the Southern California tilesetting title in 1962 and was the runnerup in the recent California championships. He is considered a prime candidate for the coveted "Apprentice of the Year" award.

Along with Gildy, Russell Rutter of Hawthorne and Richard T. Peterson, Bellflower, will graduate to journeyman status.

Joining the apprenticeship program on the same night as graduation exercises will be Patrick Stewart, 1717 Lincoln, Torrance, who will be among the 14 men indentured.

A Southern California tile setting championship is scheduled at the same site.

'Regatta of Champions' Scheduled June 15, 16 at Marine Stadium

Los Angeles Boat and Ski Club has announced Saturday and Sunday, June 15 and 16, as the dates for its fifth annual Regatta of Champions at Marine Stadium in Long Beach.

More than 100 SK type inboard racing boats are expected to enter the Regatta, which also will feature ski races for men, women and youngsters, drag racing and ski drags.

Top SK drivers like Ed Olson of Garden Grove, Lon Skinner of Medford, Ore., Carl Dethlefsen of San Rafael and Tony Maricich of Lomita will enter their hot boats, while the big drag hydros like Barry McCown's "Banzai" and Bob Ellis in Rudy Ramas' "Phfft" are expected to enter the drag portion of the program.

Nearly $5,000 in cash is up for prize money, with $500 going to top eliminator in the invitational drags and $25 going to all boats that qualify for eliminations at more than 100 m.p.h.

The Regatta of Champions always has been the top spectator event in West Coast boat racing, and with the field that is shaping up, the 1963 version will be no exception.
