

DATELINE Continued . . .

At The Zany Zoo — NELL — hi Rube . . .
AND NOW FOR MORE MOVING ON THE EIGHT TRACK AT WESTERN SPEEDWAY — OOOOPps . . . 102 — that picture is of Wes Cornelious — messing up the track with his rusty old fenders as over and over he goes — instead of round 'N' round . . .

LES TETTER No. 99 made the same mess the week before three times over in a 40 Plymouth coupe — then he had the audacity to come to rest upside down on the crash wall — not only a crease in his pants did he have — you should see the car.

MARTY QUAY got together with Bennie at B M & L and lo' I got a car that runs — Bennie once is enough — you don't have to win ALL the BIG trophies — Once again THE B M & L AUTO WRECKING SPECIAL did it again — with Bennie at the wheel he chalked up another Marathon win Saturday night . . .

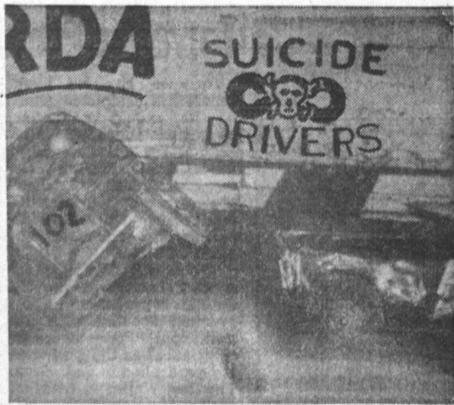

RICH MUNZ flipped in the intersection — of all places. Rich — whatta you, some kind of nut — thats dangerous.

Rockey Loren No. 7X copped a first. Les Diksen No. 68 did too. Bob Diksen No. 67 could'nt let his brother have all the fun so he got a first too.

Irish Clark No. X played games for awhile then he walked off with a trophy for himself—

Bud Monigold sat it out in the stands . . . and Ross Boardman has a coupe I think I want . . .

Thats it for this week — me and the pink woodmobile will now ride off together into the setting sun . . .

WESTERN SPEEDWAY 139th and Western Ave., Gardena presents the Suicide eight race again Saturday June 8th at 7:00 p.m. This is a race that has to be seen to be believed, with action every minute. Last Saturday's race was typical with four roll overs in one race and spin-outs, crack-ups in every other event. This drivers' race on a figure eight track which means they are crossing their own track at high speeds, which leads to all kinds of fun, especially when one driver meets another in the intersection and neither one knows about brakes. Don't miss the fun every Saturday night 7:00 p.m.

LADIES!

ELIZA DOOLITTLE, ragamuffin Cockney flower girl transformed into a society belle, shocks Britain's blue-bloods at Ascot, in MY FAIR LADY, which opens Greek Theatre summer season, July 3-20. Gaylea Byrne is Eliza; Ronald Drake is Professor Higgin with an all-star National cast.

GREEK THEATRE — SCHEDULE FOR 1963 SEASON

Imagine the most beautiful outdoor theater in the world and then imagine you are enjoying the greatest musical of all time. You can make these two pleasant thoughts a reality by attending the spectacular Greek Theatre and seeing the opulent production of the one and only My Fair Lady which opens the Greek Theatre summer season on July 3.

The Greek Theatre Association and its general director, James A. Doolittle, have worked diligently to bring to the Southern California populace the very finest presentations and great artists of the stage and concert field.

My Fair Lady is scheduled for 18 performances, ending its engagement on July 20, followed by the award winning British drama, A Man For All Seasons, featuring the celebrated English and American cast for only 13 performances, starting on July 22nd and ending August 3.

The season will also include the beloved opera, Madame Butterfly, with Metropolitan Opera stars Dorothy Kirsten and Brian Sullivan in the roles of Cio-Cio San and Pinkerton. This outstanding Greek Theatre production will appear for three performances only, August 6, 8, and 10.

Harry Belafonte and Company, in a new production staged especially for the Greek Theatre, will be on stage for 24 performances, Aug. 12 through Sept. 7.

The 1963 season's special closing attraction will be the Kingston Trio, with Oscar-winner Henry Mancini conducting the Greek Theatre orchestra. This program, running the musical gamut from folk tunes to modern jazz, will be on stage Sept. 9 through 15.

Season ticket information may be obtained by calling the Greek Theatre, NOrmandy 3-3936. Season brochures and mail order forms may be requested at the same telephone number, or by writing to the Greek Theatre, 2700 N. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles 27, California.
