

Indian Dancers, Singers to Key Leonards 'Price Warpath'

Torrance will reverberate with stomps and chants of authentic war dances Saturday as the Moccasin Time Dance Team, a group of 11 American Indian Dancers and Singers, gather to entertain the people of our community at 25405 Crenshaw at 1:30 p.m. as the guests of Leonards Discount Department Store.

Representing many Indian tribes of our continent including Pawnee, Cherokee-Chicasaw, Navajo and the Comanche tribes, the group will offer their talents which are the birthright of their once proud and victorious people. They are a warm friendly people who love to share the rich traditions of their heritage. Their dances will tell stories of long ago.

Celebrities to Perform

Adding to the entertainment of the day will be Foster Hood, a well known Indian performer. Best known for his role in "Broken Arrow," Hood also played in "Cimarron" and has been on "Bonanza," "Rip Cord" and the "Untouchables" television shows.

The colorful and gay native costumes worn by the dancers will give the camera bugs plenty of opportunity to snap their shutters as the group performs the Eagle, Bird, Snake, Hoop and Buffalo Dances.

Youth Groups Invited

Youth groups in our area are especially invited to attend this Pow-Wow. Of special interest to the Cub Scouts, "Y" Indian Guides and Woodcraft Rangers will be the Feather, Picking, Horse Tail and Ruffle Dances. At least one young Indian Warrior will be featured during the show.

Free Indian Head-Dresses

In keeping with the "Price Warpath" theme of Leonards annual event, all kids will receive Indian head-dresses if they are with their parents. Jerry Moss, advertising manager of Leonards, states that the Moccasin Time Dance Team, which is being brought to this area as a public service promises to make this event a memorable one. Everyone is invited to attend. There will be no charge for admission.

WHOOPING IT UP in full Indian regalia are authentic Indian song and dance groups who will be on hand to help Leonards celebrate their annual Price Warpath Sale event. The dancers will be at Leonards Saturday from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

Al Ortale Wins Another Sales Race

Al Ortale Rambler, Torrance dealer, has captured the American Motors major 1963 sales contest in his division. This year's victory is the second won by Ortale since he won the European trip in 1962.

The triumph will enable Mr. and Mrs. Ortale to have the opportunity of joining the other nationwide winners in Las Vegas for a four-day, all expense paid, outing. In addition, a cash bonus prize will allow the winners an additional trip of their own choice.

The winning salesmen were rewarded with expensive premiums of their choice while general sales manager Keith Muir and sales manager Frank Boothe received cash bonus awards. Since becoming the Torrance agency in 1961, Al Ortale Rambler has maintained consistent leadership in volume sales for the Southern California division.

As a token of appreciation of the fine response made by South Bay residents during the contest, Ortale Rambler is offering sets of famous make men's and women's luggage to new Rambler purchasers.
