LUNCHEON

A luncheon meeting was held by the Avalon Council PTA members to conclude the year's activities. Each school had gaily decorated their tables with a circus theme.

Mrs. John Blanckmon, Tenth District Harbor regional director, was installing officer. She used a kitchen theme to install the following members:

Mmes. John Papadakis, president; Phillip Labor, first vice president; Walter Pollard, second vice president; Earl McGhee, secretary; Jack Barger, treasurer; Lyle Davis, auditor; George Mabee, historian; and Clifford Davis, parliamentarian.

Record book certificates were presented to the following schools: Bonita, Cardale, Carson, Catskill, Dolores, Dominguez, Fries, Gulf, Hawaiian, 232nd Place, and Wilmington Park.

Guests at the meeting were Mmes. Wesley Lee, Gateway Council president; David Goolsby, Gateway Council president-elect; Steven Stilkotch, Lomita San Pedro Council president-elect; C. L. Wilson, 10th District P.T.I. chairman; Harold McWaid, and Peter Moggoria.

Concluding the meeting was the historian report by Mrs. Clifford Davis, presentation of membership certificates, and exchange of presidents' pin between Mrs. Papadakis and Mrs. McWaid.

JUDGE FAIR

Homemakers Fair was held last week at Stephen White Jr. High School under direction of the Junior Homemakers club and teachers and the homemaking department. Mrs. Beatrice Erickson, homemaking teacher, was chairman.

Mothers were guests at a tea and fashion show by students.

The homemaking classes displayed items they had made and entered them in a contest.

Members of Stephen White PTA judged the following entries: aprons, skirts, blouses, smocked and daffy pillows, dolls, make-up cakes and hats, dust mitts, night gowns, dresses, sportswear, cookies, cakes, breads and pies.

COUNCIL LUNCHEON

Exotic imports from Jamaica; wearin' of the green

from the far off shores of Erin; suggestion of muted castinets and the mysterious secrets of the land of the sphynx were among the international moods represented at the annual luncheon held by Lomita-San Pedro PTA council. Officers from eighteen schools representing 18 countries gathered together to view installation of 1963-64 council officers.

Mrs. William Clarke, president-elect of Harbor City PTA, was one of the 18 local presidents to be presented and ratified as council board members.

Installed as president of council was Mrs. Stephen Silkatch, past president of Harbor City PTA.

Harbor City PTA past presidents attending were: Mmes. Wayne L. Van Buren, James Alexander, and Robert Rohl.

Seated at the table of honor with Mrs. Richard Crowell, funders day chairman, 10th District CCP-T was Mrs. William Tregarthen, 1950-51. Mrs. Clarence Bramley, 1962-63 had as her guest, Mrs. Avis Creech, principal, Harbor City Elementary School.

The Jamaican theme selected by Harbor City PTA was executed by Mrs. Charles Arbuckle, and Mrs. James Goslin, art co-chairmen.

Concluding the combination fun and business luncheon, members of the Taber Ave. PTA, presented a "Sing Along With PTA" community sing. Lyrics were clever parodies of new and old tunes poking gentle fun at the tactics and antics of industrious PTA members.

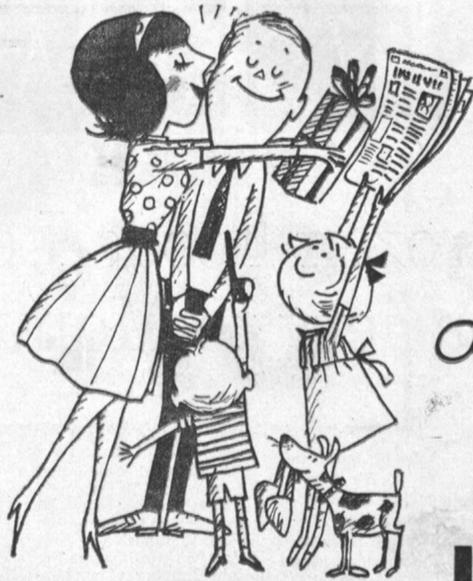

TEACHERS LUNCHEON

Fleming Junior High PTA will honor teachers at a luncheon in the Teachers Cafeteria, on June 18 at 11 a.m. The association will provide ham, rolls and coffee, and members of the board will bring salads and pies.

This is the last activity of the year for Mrs. A. L. Dudley, retiring board president. The gavel has been turned over to Mrs. Ralph Robertson at a previous meeting.

VACATIONING

Among Torrance vacationers at the San Clemente Inn, located on the California cliffs overlooking the ocean at San Clemente, were Colonel and Mrs. P. J. Roberts.
