

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

MRS. RAYMOND WISHAM
... former Denise Hunter
(photo by Seeman)

Wisham-Hunter Vows Exchanged

Miss Denise Lee Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Frank Hunter of 2806 Onrado St., became the bride of Raymond Leon Wisham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond V. Wisham of 2023 Arlington St., in a ceremony performed at 4 p.m. last Sunday at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Rev. Hugh R. Percy officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Escorted by her father, the bride was dressed in a floor length white satin peau de soie sheath gown fashioned with an Empire waistline, fingertip sleeves and a cathedral train. Her bouquet was of white orchids, roses and lily of the valley.

Maid of honor was Diane S. Hunter, who selected a sheath gown of pink satin peau de soie and carried pink long stem roses.

Dressed in red satin peau de soie, and carrying a basket of red and pink rose petals, Cheri Fowler was flower girl.

Bridesmaids included the Misses Nanci Barnard, Linda Davis, Sharon Murawski and Sharon Ricci.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hunter chose a pink and red floral print silk dress with matching accessories.

Damon Wisham was best man and Randy Hunter was ring bearer. Ushers were: David Hill, Vernon Davis, Charles Murawski and Patrick Stewart.

Musical selections included "The Lord's Prayer" and "O, Perfect Love."

A reception at the parish hall followed the wedding ceremony. Mrs. Park Montague assisted at the reception and Miss Frances Mc-

Monigie presided at the guest book.

The newlyweds, who are at home at 20706 Eastwood St., are both graduates of Torrance High School. The bride is currently enrolled at El Camino College and is employed as a secretary for Empire Realty Co. The bridegroom recently completed two years service with the United States Air Force.

Delta Zetas Set Barbecue Dinner

South Bay Delta Zeta alumnae ended their year with a barbecue steak dinner at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at the home of Mrs. Norman DeWitt.

Mrs. C. W. Miller and Mrs. Norman DeWitt was co-hostesses.

Newly-elected officers for the 1963-64 year are: Mmes. J. F. Thomas, El Segundo, president; Karl Springer, Inglewood, first vice president; Harold Spang, Torrance, second vice president; Charles Clinton, Westchester, corresponding secretary; R. E. Owen, Manhattan Beach, secretary; Merton Leinberger, Inglewood, treasurer; Jimmy L. Miller, Torrance, publicity; Don Rice-Wray, Westchester, philanthropy; L. E. Ivins, Palos Verdes, magazines; Francis Lamb, Hermosa Beach, historian and chapter editor; J. R. white, Rolling Hills, recommendations and Panhellenic representative; Norman DeWitt, Torrance, flame fantasy; and Alma Smith, Torrance, courtsey chairman.

BUFFET SUPPER for outgoing board members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club was given by Mrs. Ronald Forrestal, right, outgoing president, at her home, 22632 Gaycrest, last week.

Board members presented Mrs. Forrestal with a charm bracelet. Pictured with her is Mrs. Clayton Lilley, left.

—PRESS photo

Coloring Book Sets Installation Theme

Stepping through an Alice-in-Wonderland type life-size picture coloring book, Mrs. Andy Meier, Jr. of San Pedro became the sixth president of South Bay Mothers of Twins Club at installation ceremonies held Monday at the Alondra Club in Lawndale.

Mrs. John Adams, installing officer, and her committee had color-keyed the gala evening's activities, starting with table favors of crayons and coloring book programs for each guest.

As each new officer was to be installed, Mrs. Adams urged the group for rhymes to color the picture of the inductee appropriately in their color book programs. Each new officer was pinned with a color cartoon corsage created for the occasion by Mrs. Bing Harris.

Officers installed were: Mmes. Ronald Eisman, first vice chairman; Gordon Garrett, second vice chairman; Fred Casstevens, treasurer; Jerry Steinbrecher, recording secretary; and Sam Major corresponding secretary.

Highlight of the evening was historian Mrs. Norven McKean's report, summarizing the club's activities and achievements during the past year.

Mrs. Glenn Smith, outgoing president, was presented with a carnation corsage, and inscribed gavel, president's pin and her individual press book.

After receiving the gavel from Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Meier announced the following new committee chairmen: Mmes. Richard Cassell, social; Russell Cameron and Mrs. Robert Sowell, philanthropy; Jim Husereau and Edward Edwards, membership; Bing Harris, publicity; Guy Locas, exchange table; Chuck Luttrell, telephone; Robert Jackson and Donald Marone, hospitality; Glenn Smith, bulletin; and Norven McKean, historian.

Mrs. Meier announced that the annual 'Twins Club Picnic' would be held at Peck Park in San Pedro on July 14.

Coffee and a "Color Me Happy" anniversary cake were served to end the evening's fun.

Mothers of twins or triplets interested in obtaining have been invited to telephone Mrs. Jim Husereau FR 9-2702.

Story Hour To Begin Wednesday

Reading hour for children 6 to 12 will get underway at Learning Arts Affiliates, 3661 Torrance Blvd., at 2 p.m. Wednesday, according to Mrs. Gerson Jacobson, director.

There will be no charge for the weekly story session, Mrs. Jacobson announced.

Learning Arts Affiliates is a center for instruction to supplement school curriculum.

Included in its program are individualized tutoring, speech correction and remedial reading classes. Spanish and French classes are currently being formed.

Persons desiring information are asked to contact Mrs. Jacobson at FR 1-3571 or FA 0-0537.

—PRESS photo

Job's Daughters Install Officers

"The Lord Is My Shepherd" was theme of the 73rd installation of officers and Bethel choir of Job's Daughters, Bethel 61, Redondo Beach.

In keeping with the theme each girl carried a net cross decorated with a shepherd's staff and apple blossom corsage.

Decorations carried out a pink, white and silver color scheme. Miss Gale Little was installed honored queen.

Other elective officers installed were: Kim Fowler, senior princess; Bonnie Brett, junior princess; Wendy Freeland, guide; and Terry Hunt, marshal.

Also installed were appointive officers: Debbie Ferris, chaplain; Sharleen Cookus, treasurer; Pat Eyer, recorder; Sharon Wood, librarian; Kathy Pinkerton, musician; Debbie Conley, senior custodian; Lynn Creely, junior custodian; Pat McCullough, inner guard; Barbara Salisbury, outer guard; Louise Zoeller, Cindy Bishop, Lonna Turner, Beverly Shaver and Randi Freeland, messengers.

Miss Sherrie Reed, the outgoing honored queen, served as installing officer.

Soloist was Kathy Reed. Wendy Rae served as electrician, and Sheila Barrett was narrator for the ceremony.

Master of Ceremonies was Robert Kelley, associate guardian of Bethel 273. Ushers were Jerry Williams, George Thompson, Donald Powell, and John Linde of

MISS GALE LITTLE
... new queen

Redondo DeMolay.

Candlelighters were Janice Moore and Jackie Colwell, both members of Bethel 61. Bethel Little, sister of the honored queen, served as guest book attendant.

The ceremony was followed by a reception and dance.

Y-Teen Leaders At Meet

Miss Janet Kimbrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Kimbrell of 20821 Avis Ave., has been selected

JANET KIMBRELL
... at conference

Colleen Heads Party

Colleen Marie O'Hara, 1615 Fern Ave., was elected Whig Party Leader as political conventions and rallies got underway this week in the Girls State 20th annual model exercise in government at the University of California, Davis campus.

Girls State citizens have been selected by their school administrators for their qualifications in leadership, scholarship and an interest in government.

Colleen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle J. O'Hara, represents Bishop Montgomery High School. She is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Job's Daughters Set Grand Bethel Meet

More than 250 Southern California girls will ride Southern Pacific streamliners Coast Daylight and San Joaquin Daylight Thursday, June 27, when they journey to Oakland for the two-day Grand Bethel session of Job's Daughters.

as one of five girls from Torrance currently attending the Southern California Y-Teen Summer Leadership Conference in San Diego.

Other representatives from this city include: Joy Coffey of Torrettes; Yvonne Colletti of Bel Airs; Jeri O'Donnell of Deltas; Nancy Sutton of Hi-Toppers; and June Swarthroat of Athenas.

These delegates will meet with 200 delegates representing cities from Palo Alto to Tia Juana. Convention theme is "TODAYS of Tomorrow." Topics will include "Inner Space," concept of self; "Outer Space," friends and relationships; "New World," focus on emotions and love; and "Count Down" preparation for love, marriage and careers.

DISCUSSING PLANS for forthcoming carnival are officers of Junior Auxiliary of Little Company of Mary Hospital. Board members were installed recently at a banquet held in the doctors' dining room at the hospital. Pictured are: (l-r) the Misses Jeannette Jordan, vice president; Pamela Free, president; and Sharon Peterson, publicity manager. The carnival will take place Aug. 23-25. —PRESS photo

ASSUMING NEW ROLES are members of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club who were installed in office at a luncheon Monday at the Alondra Club, Lawndale. Pictured are (l-r) Mmes. Sam Major, corresponding secretary; Gordon Garrett, second vice-president; Andrew Meier Jr., president; Ronald Eisman, first vice-president; and Fred Casstevens, treasurer. Also installed was Mrs. Jerry Steinbrecher, recording secretary.

—PRESS photo