DATELINE . . . Shrine Grid Tilt Ticket Sale Opens

By Ted Stephens

Around we go—dusk to dawn—and all my publicity pictures are gone—lost, strayed, or stolen—I don't know. Tommy Carlough gave me a very nice shot of himself—its gone—so too, the pics of Twila & Stan Naperala . . .

Harry Prod told me I could run an ad for him if I printed another picture of the Parasol—left up to me to decide what to do—so I'm doing it . . .

Sam Filippone is the only guy I've talked to in a week that makes any sense (cents)—he fed me a steak dinner last week—that helped to get me out of a low moment . . .

There is a waitress at Little Caesars who must have thought I was kidding last week when I ordered a plain coke—I sat for 45 minutes waiting for Johnny Prophet to take a break and felt more and more like I had just leased the Mohave desert . . .

Bob and Randy opened at Rockey's last week—promised to be in the office Monday morning—didn't show up—and that helped put me UP—up the creek . . .

Shrine Grid Tilt Ticket Sale Opens

Tickets for Southern California's most attractive summer event — the annual Shrine pageant and North-South All-Star football game — are being handled in this area by the El Toga Shrine club. The colorful spectacle, sponsored by the Al Malakah Temple and its 60 affiliated Shrine Clubs throughout the southland, will be staged the night of Aug. 1 in Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. Arthur Golden, chairman of the football committee for the El Toga Club, announced today. All tickets are reserved and scaled at $5, $3, and $1.50, with net proceeds earmarked for the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, Los Angeles unit.

"All Shrine clubs are seeking sell out performances for the 12th renewal of this year's show," Golden said. "The pre-game and half-time intermission presentation will feature a cast of more than 5,000, while the game will find the best Southern California prep gridders opposing the all-star squad from the northern section of the State."

Elmer P. Bromley, founder of the charity classic, is again serving as overall director, with B. Pat Groom directing the pageant. "Since its inception the Shrine event has grown into an outdoor spectacular now ranked second only to the Tournament of Roses as a West Coast attraction," Golden declared.

Tickets in this area may be obtained through Golden at 1125 W. 162nd St., Gardena, phone 4-4836. Tickets also are on sale at the Los Angeles Shrine Pageant headquarters, 655 W. Jefferson Blvd., RI 9-0166.

Torrance-Lomita Realtors Pleased with Convention

Members of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors, returned from the California Real Estate Assn. meetings at Lake Tahoe, indicated satisfaction at the result of the three-day sessions.

In a special meeting to discuss the ethics of realtors in relationship to the public, Kenneth Peters, president of the Torrance-Lomita board, reported that the people are becoming increasingly aware of the significance of the word realtor.

"It is important," Peters said, "that we continue to stress the professional status of the realtor in the community and with particular stress on the fact that realtors are pledged to a code of ethics which assures the public of better service, fairness and honesty in their real estate transactions."

Other members present representing the Torrance-Lomita board at the CREA sessions were directors Delbert Vaughn, Henry Mahler, Alvin Grancell, Joseph Mangini Lawrence Poeske and Don Mario. Committee members attending were Donald Shaw, Robert Shaw, Geneva Meara, Harold Lippard and Mary Toombs.

Willis "Bill" Brugger, executive secretary of the board was in charge of arrangements and liaison officer between the Torrance-Lomita board members and CREA committees.
