DATELINE . .

By Ted Stephens

Around we go — dusk to dawn. CAESARS—wednesday night—talk about packed - , wow. I walked in the door 30 minuts late — couldn't find a place to park - spotted Warren Snyder in a 2x's jazzy white dinner jacket - - - I said Hi - - he said "thru there" - - so into the Apollo room I go Fred maddalone grabs me by the arm - starts at one end of the lounge and in 48 1/2 seconds I have met, shook hands and made a few small noises that sounded, (I hope), like, hello and good-by to some 50 odd ANGLES—their wives and who ever else happen to be shairing the table.

That over — somebody suggested I should sit with Marge - - so I did - - had a drink - - Gill Sellan came by said hello and very politely kicked my foot out of the asle so a waitress or two could get by to serve alky juice — to a very thirsty group down the way apiece - - . So I did . . . At this point - I decided that I'd worked to long on the hour side - Trying to get a Friday page going - so decided to leave - left Marge to write about and meet - also remember a million and one names - - Said goodby to her and Socity (I think) editor cohort 'SANDY' - - and proceeded to stagger toward the nearist door - - . Almost didn't make it - - , got trapped between two rather tall gentlemen and the girls they were dancing with - - so rather than bother anybody I just stood there and listioned to Liz Calderone start and finish an excelent vocal arrangement of - - something very moody - - spotted a hole in the people - - did a broken field run - - picked up my camera at the desk — (Thinking maby I should at least take one picture — then discovered I forgot film), so, a little red in the face - I said good night to Gil and Warren - jumped out the door - thought about my camera - - then thought of Marge's camera and didn't feel to bad about not having pictures - cause I knew she'd take and print some today on her page - - got in my pinkwoodmobile - and got in the wind - - . I hated to miss the rest of the evening - but I knew CAESARS would get along ok without me - - so I went home to bed - - and sleep - - - DIG, it sure did feel some good to close my weary peepers . . .
