

Japanese Student to Visit Torrance, Riviera Families

Twenty-two families from Torrance, Hollywood Riviera and Gardena will host play to 27 Japanese students, among 134 who will be in the area for two days Monday and Tuesday.

The students will fly home July 24 via Japan Airlines. They are coming here from a "Midway" convention in New York of 3,000 foreign students from 57 countries.

While here, the young Japanese will tour Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm and Marineland, will eat and sleep with their two-day "moster families."

More are Robert Anderson, Al Klempan, George Crabtree, David Jeheber, Kazumasa Hayakawa, Stanley Roberts, and Mary Bartholomew.

Gardena families are Arnold Stahlman, and Raymond Biffle. Riviera families are Robert Sullivan, Andy Anderson, Gea Tanza, and Lee Shades. Mrs. Irvin Isom of Manhattan Beach is area housing chairman. The students will also be housed in Manhattan, Redondo, El Segundo, Westchester, Hermosa, Los Angeles, and Hawthorne.
