

Wizard of Oz To Work His Magic at ECC

Lions, witches and tin men have taken occupancy of the El Camino College Campus Theater as Director Burnett Ferguson prepares for the "Wizard of Oz" annual summer production for children of the community.

Seats for the three-day stand are currently on sale at 75 cents in the college book store. The production will be featured in 7:30 p.m. performances on July 25, 26 and 27. Two additional stagings will be given on Saturday, July 27, at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Enacting leading roles in the production will be Naomi Moore, Redondo Beach, as Dorothy; Allan McCollum, Redondo Beach, the Scarecrow; Vic Barrera, Inglewood, the Lion; Terry Klein, Torrance, the Tin Man, and Jane Cobabe, Redondo Beach, the Wicked Witch.

College players will present an adaptation of the original story; the case has implemented a series of changes in dialogue and action to enhance the production for local theater-goers.

Seats for each performance are limited to 354, capacity of the Campus Theater.

RUMMAGE SALE BEGINS FRIDAY

Mrs. Mike Marincovich, president of the St. Philomena Womens' Council, has announced the completion of plans for the annual rummage sale to be conducted at the school hall from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday, at 21900 S. Main St.

Mrs. Edward Bernardin will be in charge assisted by Mmes. William Hopkins and Albert Gagne. Items prepared for sale include: furniture, household utensils, good clothing, play clothing for children, toys, garden items, purses, and bric-a-brac.

Harbor College Summer Enrollment at 1,495

Final enrollment in the summer session at Harbor College totaled 1495, according to Kenneth R. Williams, dean of summer session.

This is an increase of 261 students, or 21 per cent, over last summer's enrollment.

"We are very pleased that students are becoming increasingly aware of the excellent conditions for summer study on the Harbor campus," Williams said.

JAYCETTES SLATE MEMBERSHIP TEA

Unusual Vacation

If you want to spend an unusual weekend sometime, pack your bags and check in at a hotel in your own city, or in a city not more than 15 miles away.

First write to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce asking about places of interest, good restaurants (not that there are many of these, but when one is on vacation one is more apt to be WILLING to like even inferior food, but more of this at a latter date), a night club or two, and a good show.

Packing sightseeing, dining, theater into even two days in much the way one would when visiting a strange city, is a fascinating experience.

EASY AS A HOOP

Radiat ply construction in a new truck tire developed by The B. F. Goodrich Company is said to make it roll as easy as a hoop, give 50 percent greater mileage than conventional tires, run cooler, and be less liable to blowouts under high speed.

24 KIWANIS TAKE BUS TRIP

Twenty-four members of the Torrance Kiwanis Club and four guests journeyed by charter bus to Tijuana, Mexico, for a recent interclub meeting with the Tijuana Kiwanis Club. Also present were members of the newly formed Mexicali Kiwanis Club and the Kiwanis Club of Escondido. Making arrangements for the interclub meeting were Torrance Kiwanis Club international relations chairman Dr. Phil Hallosan and interclub chairman Parke Montague. Many boxes of old clothing were taken on the bus and given to the Tijuana Kiwanis Club which is gathering clothing and distributing it to needy families.

Three members of the Torrance Kiwanis Club who attended the 48th Annual Convention of Kiwanis International in Atlantic City, N.J., from June 30 through July 4 were Don Hitchcock, president; Paul Shinoda, vice president; and Homer Morgan. These members were accompanied by their wives to the convention.

ATTENDS MEETING

Mrs. Ronald Forestal of Torrance Junior Woman's Club, mental health chairman for Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership, attended a meeting of district chairmen at the home of Mrs. Robert Reaney of Inglewood, first vice president Tuesday, July 2.
