

Children's Drama Auditions Set For Next Week at Sea-Aire Park

A joint project of the stagecraft and modern dance classes of the Torrance Recreation Department will hold auditions for a children's creative drama, at a 1 p.m. Monday, July 22, and Tuesday, July 23, at Sea-Aire Park.

As was the case in last year's play, "The Lion That Sneezed," children are writing a story. With the help of their instructor, they will turn the story into a script. Later, the play will be divided into sections of dance and drama; it will be for these and drama parts that auditions will be held. Any child, whether enrolled in a class or not, can try out for a part.

Costumes and sets will be designed and built by members of the Dance-Drama Workshop beginning July 22.

For further information, call Joan Maguire or Erika Huhl, instructors, at the Arts and Crafts Center, FR 5-9142.

Curtis E. DeVore Is Trained as Power Specialist

Airman Third Class Curtis E. DeVore of Torrance is returning to his air reserve unit at March AFB following his graduation from the United States Air Force technical training course for electrical power production specialists in Texas.

Airman DeVore learned to operate and repair diesel engine generators used to furnish electric power to Air Force installations.

The airman, son of Cecil C. DeVore of 21429 Halldale Ave., is a graduate of Narbonne High School. His mother, Mrs. Ethel M. DeVore, resides at 1920 Gramercy.

Keep Libraries Open During Summer — Hahn

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn has strongly urged that all county library branches be kept open on regular schedules during the summer.

Hahn pointed out county librarian William S. Geller had made known his intention to close some branch libraries on certain days and limit hours on others during summer months.

Geller cited as his reason that use of the libraries usually drops in summer months because people are on vacation.

Hahn stressed, however, that many persons cannot afford to go on summer vacation trips or even spend long hours at the beach or other recreational areas.

"The libraries provide recreation for these citizens and books make their summer more complete and enjoyable," Hahn said.
