

New Director Announces Chapel Theatre's Schedule

In connection with his new appointment as associate resident director of the Chapel Theater, Ed Long announces a list of productions scheduled for the 1963-1964 season. In his endeavor to obtain qualified directors and plays that are a challenge to actors and directors, and the best in theater entertainment for patrons, he has collected an unusual and talented group of directors with plays to match.

Long will direct the next production, to follow the one now being shown, which will be "Five Finger Exercise" by Peter Shaffer. This is the final play of the 1962-63 season and will be presented Aug. 23 through Sept. 28, excluding Labor Day week-end.

Many Awards

Long is well known in the South Bay area through his leading roles in musicals, dramas and in his capacity as director, having received many awards in these capacities.

Scheduled for Oct. 18 thru Nov. 15 is "The Hairy Ape," a drama by Eugene O'Neill, directed by Joe D'Agosta. Currently employed at the MGM studio as casting director, D'Agosta directed "Compulsion" and "Blue Denim" for Chapel Theater, directed "Ethan Frome" at the Vanguard Theater, Hollywood, and was a student actor and director at El Camino College.

The biggest venture ever to be attempted at Chapel Theater will be its first musical comedy, "Little Mary Sunshine," to be directed by Fred West, who is director of "Houseboat Named Pebbles," currently showing at the playhouse.

Holiday Special

West is well known for his leading roles and directing in musicals and comedies, recently having added drama to his collection of credits in both acting and directing capacities. This will be the Christmas holiday special and will be presented Dec. 6 through Jan. 11, excluding Christmas weekend.

Tentatively scheduled for Jan. 24 through Feb. 22, 1964, will be "Look Back in Anger," a drama by John Osborne, with Ed Long directing.

REASSIGNED — Airman Dennis R. Kircher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Kircher of 24719 S. Avalon, Wilmington, is being reassigned to Amarillo AFB, Tex., for technical training as a United States Air Force aircraft maintenance specialist.

Airman Kircher, who enlisted in the Air Force a short time ago, has completed his initial basic military training here. He is a 1961 graduate of Banning High School.

The comedy-drama "Rhinoceros," by Eugene Ionesco will be directed by Bob Connor from March 6 through April 11, excluding Easter weekend. Connor most recently appeared for Chapel in "Streetcar Named Desire" and has been in theater work since 1954, dating back to his college days. Connor has directed or acted for Manhattan Players, Morgan Theatre, Hampton Players and has received many awards for acting, directing or producing.

To be brought back by popular demand will be the extravagant comedy-drama "Rashomon" by Fay and Michael Kanin and it will again be directed by the resident director of Chapel Theater, Don Gish. This will be presented next Aug. 28 through Sept. 26 and will be the final production of the season of 1963-64.

3 Vehicles to Select

According to Long, there are two comedies and one drama yet to be selected, although he has secured the directors. John Green is scheduled for a comedy, April 24 through May 23, and is now on tour with "Three on a Match."

He has many directing and acting credits, including productions at Pasadena Playhouse, UCLA and Long Beach theatres. Doug Keifer, also to direct a comedy from June 5 to June 27 excluding the July 4 week-end, has been in theatre, musicals and radio work since 1949 as an actor, director, stage designer and artist. He has appeared in Vancouver, Seattle and San Francisco and locally directed "Death of a Salesman" for Hampton Players. Long further stated that he is negotiating with Burnett Ferguson, drama instructor at El Camino College, to direct a drama scheduled from July 17 to Aug. 15.
