FRANK TALK
by Marion Frank
THE HERMOSA INN on Pier Avenue now is featuring a jazzy new show called "Johnny Lucas and the Dixieland Blueblowers."
TOMMY CARLOUGH has returned from vacation to the SANDS Cocktail Lounge on Torrance Blvd.
BIG plans are under way at the Halfway House for remodeling of the Cocktail Lounge. See Friday's paper for formal announcement of all the new changes and a gala celebration . . . and too, the return of lovely PHYLLIS HART, talented pianist and songstress for the event!
THE JUMPIN JACK announces a beauty pageant and celebrity night Sunday, August 4, on live television, Channel 11, your host, Jack D. Rogers, of course.
The well-known STEVE SACCO TRIO has joined the Guys and Dolls, along with featured vocalist Liz Calderone at CAESARS. This talented trio, with the big-band sound (I enjoyed a rehearsal Monday aft) has won acclaim at many of the better bistros in the South Bay area. The Guys and Dolls will remain till Saturday, when they leave for Las Vegas for a two week's engagement (plus option) at the Thunderbird, but I know they will return to this area soon again.
Did you know dept: The Pen and Quill Motor Hotel has 134 rooms, including eight suites and meeting rooms . . . the ballroom seats 500 and convention space for 1000. Also didn't know that Robert E. Reuben, president of the hotel and restaurant, is a former war correspondent. (Been thinking about doing Biographical sketches on restaurant owners and managers, so many have unusual and interesting backgrounds).
Sometime soon, make a trip to the ODYSSEY in Anaheim to hear Johnny Prophet. A worthwhile jaunt . . . they are located at 1490 South Los Angeles Street.
