Rams, Cowboys to Kick Off Local Grid Season Aug. 8

The dynamic Dallas Cowboys and the "new" Los Angeles Rams will start tapering off their training grind this weekend for their charity game clash Thursday night, Aug. 8.

The Cowboys are training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, the Rams at Chapman College in Orange.

Both Coach Harland Svare of the Rams and Tom Landy of the Cowboys say their clubs are ready and eager for the 18th annual charity grid classic which will open pre-season action.

Game time is 8:05 p.m., with appropriate ceremonies and activities scheduled both before the kickoff and during half time.

A sophomore, Roman Gabriel, will be in charge of the revitalized Rams, making their 1963 start with a new mental outlook (as well as talent).

Veteran Eddie LeBaron, longtime Southland favorite, will pilot his explosive Cowboys in their first appearance in this charity tilt.

An air of optimism prevails at both camps. The Rams figure to make up for a 27-17 league loss to Dallas last year. The Cowboys are equally sure they'll start off a winning season on the right foot.

Choice reserved tickets still are available at the Rams office, 7813 Beverly Blvd., the Southern California Music Co., 637 S. Hill, the Coliseum or any Mutual ticket agency. For the Mutual agency location nearest you, telephone MA 7-1248 in Los Angeles.

Johnny Boudreau's Ram band and Ramettes will entertain before the kickoff, along with the Cowgirl Nuggets of Newhall, 40 strong on horseback. World-famed trick riders Edith Happy of Newhall and a Me Boss of Burbank, and the 100-strong San Fernando Valley Youth Band, under direction of "Tex" Lakey, head the halftime activities.

PTA News

"Adventures in Fun and Learning" is the program theme selected by the Lincoln Elementary PTA for the coming year. Under the direction of Andrew Foster, program chairman, the committee proposed the following tentative program.

"It's Fun Getting Acquainted" in October will be an ice cream social with musical entertainment by the students.

November, "Reading Adventures" will be a program on reading improvement; December will feature "Christmas Interlude" as presented by the Lincoln students.

Other programs will be: January, "Dad's Fun Night"; February, "Adventures—Past and Present"; honoring Founders and welcoming new Honorary Life recipients; March, "Learning Modern Math," as presented by Lincoln teachers; and April, "Learning About Our Nisei Neighbors," which will include Japanese dancers and music.

In May students and their parents will have the opportunity to display their favorite hobby on "Family Fun with Hobbies" night.

Serving on the committee are Ernest Thom, principal; Mrs. Elaine Sharman, advisor; and Mmes. Harold Erickson, Rupert LaLeon, Zane Daughtman and Earle Stancliff.

The hospitality committee also met with their chairman, Mrs. Harold Erickson, at her home to plan the faculty luncheon in September. "The Little Red Schoolhouse" is theme. The executive board will act as hostesses for this annual event at the school cafeteria. Those in attendance were Mmes. Harold Erickson, Walter Luttijohan, co-chairman; Bill Sands, Frank Masunaka, Kenneth Pederson, K. Yuge, advisor; Ray Takigawa and Andrew Foster, president.
