

LINDA WRIGHT, very popular song stylist, once with the Al Monte Trio, now appearing at Cyrano's, will return with the Wilder Brothers Aug. 16, 17.

BOISTEROUS BUFFONERY — Shown mixing wine, women, song and broad comedy are Stephen Pearlman, Salli Terri, Jack Weston and Howard Caine, four of many talented performers appearing in both "Peribanez" and "Tis Pity She's a Whore," opening Tuesday, Aug. 6, and Wednesday, Aug. 7, at UCLA's Schoenberg Hall. Produced by Theater Group, professional company affiliated with University Extension, the repertory shows play alternate nights through Sept. 29. Directed by Lamont Johnson.

PLANTING another new "Love's" restaurant recently, in the Rolling Hills Plaza Shopping Center at Crenshaw and Hwy. 101, which now is well under construction, is the 14th Love's Pit Barbecue restaurant to this date. Pictured here for ceremonies are Mike Denn, Rosalie Love, Barbara Harris ("Miss Love"), Dan Love and Joe Doss.

New Love's Eatery to Open

William H. Gross, general manager of Love's Enterprises, Inc., will soon open Love's Pit Barbecue No. 14 in the Rolling Hills Plaza Shopping Center at the corner of Crenshaw and 101 Hwy. in Torrance. It is the latest in a string of restaurants opened by the firm, which started 16 years ago when Mr. and Mrs. Love invested $600 to convert a real estate office into a take-out stand and patio. The original operation outgrew its location in three years. The entire chain, which will add 20 locations this year, uses barbecued bean recipes and sauce recipes developed by the Loves and soon to be put on the market separately. All cooking is done over a special combination of woods, maintaining our own wood yard, consisting of well seasoned oak, lemon, orange and walnut to give the food a unique smoked flavor. No artificial "smoky" sauces are used, according to Gross. Beans served in all their restaurants are cooked 24 hours at the main commissary in Van Nuys.
