

MAN VERSUS WILD BEAST: the most daring, death-defying act ever seen in the South Bay area, featuring Mickey Solomon, noted wild-animal trainer, and "Caesar", a 7½-foot lion, will be presented for four days beginning tomorrow during Leonards Department Stores' annual parking lot sale at the Torrance store, 25405 Crenshaw Blvd. The public is invited to attend this outstanding attraction free of charge.

Spectacular Lion Act at Leonards

An attraction billed as the most-spectacular, daring and "death defying" ever to appear in the South Bay area, will be presented free of charge by Leonards department store, during the annual "parking lot sale."

The public is invited to witness this "man versus wild beast" wrestling match, plus other death-defying acts such as Solomon "putting his head in the lion's mouth." Excitement and fun will be on tap for all who see this act.

Solomon will give three "free" performances each day of the sale with Caesar, a 500-pound East African lion; Little David, a mere 400-pound feather weight; Taiga, 10-month old 200-pound baby; and Lady, a large black Labrador retriever.

"You have to be able to control your reflexes," explained the trainer. "If a cat becomes nervous, the first reaction is to run. A trainer can't do this. You have to show him who is boss," said Solomon.

Caesar, king of the menagerie, is an affectionate creature with a smooth, unmarked coat. His huge paws could kill a horse with a single stroke, and he moves like lightning. The speed plus the tremendous power in his paws and jaws would give even the bravest of men doubt about entering the cage with the beast. Solomon, a former prize fighter and weightlifter, bought him when he was
