MAGIC CHEF

Warm Weather—Soft Cookies!

Children expected? Oatmeal cookies are in order. And a party setting of some kind. Glass cups, holding red fruit-flavored gelatin "set on a slant" are the party "surprise." Stack a circus elephant pretzel-stick with these chewy oatmeal cookie rings. Use the stick to store the cookies as well as to serve them, because the recipe bakes up soft and tender, and the flavor seems to improve in the humid air of July. Breakfast cereals are excellent for ingredient use in recipes and make nutritional contributions of protein, important B vitamins, essential minerals, and food energy.

Lemon Pecan Oatmeal Cookie Rings

- 1 cup sifted flour
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup soft shortening
- 1/2 cup brown sugar, packed
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 1/2 cups rolled oats
- 1/2 cup coarsely chopped pecans

Combine flour, soda, and salt; sift into large bowl of electric mixer. Add shortening, sugars, egg, lemon rind and juice. Beat at medium speed with electric mixer or by hand until smooth, about 2 minutes. Fold in rolled oats and pecans. Mix well. Turn level tablespoonfuls onto well-greased baking sheet 2 inches apart. Make a hole about 1 inch in diameter in center of each cookie, using the back of a small spoon or the handle end of a washed wooden spoon. Shape into ring with fingers. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F) until done and lightly browned, 10 to 12 minutes. Remove from baking sheet at once and cool on wire rack. Yield: About 3 1/2 dozen cookies.

Kiddies-Can-Do-It By Uncle Cobb Shinn

There are three certain pieces, which if put in just the right places, will make a picture of a donkey. The other six pieces if placed in the right places will make a picture of a goat. If you would use all the nine pieces at one time I don't know what it would make; try and see.

LOWER SPEED
 Lower speed on residential streets, particularly near parked cars, because most child traffic accidents occur when a youngster runs into the street from behind a parked car.
