

COMPLETING ARRANGEMENTS for the annual benefit fashion show of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary are tea committee members. The event is set for 2:15 p.m. Tuesday at the Terrace Room of the Broadway Del Amo. Pictured are, standing, Mrs. Ralph Johnson, and seated, from left: Mmes. James Laird, James McClaran, and James Noall. —PRESS photo

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor ☆

Fashion Showing Slated

Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will present its annual benefit fashion show at the Terrace Room of the Broadway, Del Amo at 2:15 p.m. Tuesday.

Latest fall fashions will be modeled by professionals and children of members. Champagne, tea, and coffee will be served preceding the show.

Benefit proceeds will go towards purchase of new hospital equipment.

Reservations chairman is Mrs. Leon Warne. Persons desiring to obtain tickets are asked to contact her at FA 8-7519.

Committee members include: Mmes. Ralph M. Johnson, telephone, James Laird, James McClarian, James Noall, and Kenneth Miller.

MRS. STERLING RICHARDS, JR., former Judith Clements (Photo by Crotty)

Judith Clements Joins Bridal Ranks

At home in Torrance following a Palm Springs honeymoon are Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Albert Richards Jr. who were united in marriage at an 11 a.m. wedding ceremony Saturday, Sept. 7, at Nativity Catholic Church.

The bride is the former Judith Marie Clements, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Clements of 3333 Opal St., and the bridegroom is son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Richards of Eunice, W. Va.

Father William P. O'Toole officiated at the double-ring ceremony which was attended by 100 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white silk organza over taffeta gown which featured seed pearls and re-embroidered alencon lace appliques on the bodice. The bouffant skirt terminated in a chapel train. Her silk illusion veil was held by a crown of silk flowers with drop pearls. The bridal bouquet was of stephanotis, baby white roses and two white orchids.

Mrs. Judy A. Burton was matron of honor. She was attired in a sapphire blue bell-shaped gown of peau de soie and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. Dressed in gowns matching that of the matron of honor were Mrs. Eve DellaValle and Miss Linda Smiley, bridesmaids. Junior bridesmaids were the Misses Cheri Clements and Barbara Di-Orio, who were gowned in yellow nylon dresses.

Miss Cathi Lou Clements, flower girl, who also wore yellow nylon, carried a basket of yellow rose petals. The bridesmaids and junior bridesmaids carried yellow spidered crysanthemum bouquets.

The bride's mother selected a pink nylon and lace gown and had a double white orchid corsage.

Best man was Leo E. Burton, and ushers included Gerald Mercer, Harold Tiffany, and Joseph DellaValle.

A reception was held at noon at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Cheri Clements presided at the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School. Prior to her employment at Pacific Telephone Company in Torrance, she attended El Camino College.

The bridegroom, who is serving with the U.S. Navy aboard the USS Maddox in Long Beach, was graduated from Marsh Fork High School in West Virginia and attended West Virginia Institute of Technology.

Italian Luncheon Planned

St. Catherine Council of Women will hold a "Luncheon in Venice" from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday, in the Parish Hall, 3846 Redondo Beach Boulevard.

Decorations will be in the Italian motif, with the menu consisting of spaghetti, tossed green salad, french bread, strawberry fluff, and coffee, milk, or tea. The spaghetti sauce will be professionally made by Arthur Sala of Sala's Italian Restaurant.

Highlight of the afternoon will be games of white elephant and bingo with numerous prizes presented. Door prizes will also be awarded during the afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Glomboske, general chairman, is being assisted by Mmes. Irvin Gleason, Mark Brown, Ray Soto, Roy Ashton, and Raymond Riffle.

Donations are $1 for adults and 50c for children. Babysitting will be available for a small fee.

Mrs. Vincent Tremblay, vice president of the Council, extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend.

Voters League To Discuss UN

Study-discussions of the Torrance League of Women Voters will get underway for the coming season at a series of unit meetings to be held at members' homes next week.

Topic of discussion will be "Decade of Development" which will kick off the second phase of a two-year study of the United Nations. Resource committee members will use Latin America as an example of what the UN is attempting to accomplish socially and economically in the 1960's.

Consensus of opinion of the 39 California Leagues following the first year of study favored increased strength of the secretary-general and General Assembly, sharing of support of the UN by member nations, and augmentation of UN peace-keeping machinery.

Resource committee members who will give presentations at the six meetings scheduled for Monday through Thursday include: Mmes. Dale Wickstrom, Paul Sochat, and C. A. Van Open.

Hostesses will be: Mmes. Stanley Jackson, Kenneth Watts, Wayne Logan, Burton Beler, Charles Piper, and Paul Sochat.

Meetings will take place as follows: Monday at 7:45 p.m., 16926 Edgar, Torrance; Tuesday, 9:45 a.m., 145 Via Monte D'Oro, Redondo Beach; 7:45 p.m., 2121 Gramercy Ave., Torrance; Wednesday, 9:45 a.m., 2926 Sonoma St., Torrance; 7:45 p.m., 1619 Third Street, Manhattan Beach; and Thursday, 7:45 p.m., 412 Avenida de Jose, Redondo Beach.

Membership in the League of Women Voters, a non-partisan group interested in better government through an informed electorate, is open to women of voting age. Persons desiring additional information are invited to contact Mrs. Jack Thompson at DA 3-9628.

Mothers of Twins To Visit Ball Park

"Take me out to the ball game" will be sung by the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club September 21st when they journey en masse to watch the Los Angeles Dodgers play Pittsburgh. Chairman of the event is Mrs. Richard Cassell.

Busses will take club members and their families from the International Pancake House in Torrance to Dodger Stadium at Chavez Ravine. Climaxing the evening the mothers will enjoy a late breakfast back at the pancake house after the game.

All activities of the club will include playing hostess at the semi-annual meeting of all the twin clubs in Southern California Oct. 8. These clubs meet twice a year to exchange ideas on club improvements and to get an insight into how the other clubs function. In charge of organizing the affair is Mrs. Glen Smith of Torrance.

Another event slated for the fall season will be the club's "beatnik" costume party to be held Oct. 12 at the Yugoslav Hall in San Pedro. The party will be one of the major events during the coming year to raise money to support club philanthropic projects. For membership information Mrs. Aldon Edwards of Torrance may be contacted.

FORM FIT FOR SLIP COVERS

For wrinkle-free, smooth-fitting slip covers, remove the freshly washed covers from the gas clothes dryer and replace on furniture when slightly damp. Smooth the flat surfaces, stretch the seam welts and carefully pull pleats into place. If you do this, ironing won't be necessary.

EXAMINING PAINTINGS donated by local artists to be given away as door prizes for the Day at the Harness Races to be conducted by Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary are Dr. Evelyn Ignacio, anesthesiologist, left, and Walter O'Keefe, radio and television actor, right. The event will take place October 12 at Hollywood Park Race Track. Artists who have donated paintings include: Annette Fox Smith, Gene Shankman and Hope Rudolph. —PRESS photo

Arizona Indians to Receive Diana Aid

September meeting of the Redondo Beach Dianans was conducted by Mrs. John Hansford, president.

Guests included Mmes. A. L. Hammond, Winnifred Van Gilder, co-ordinators, and Paul Taylor, district Build-A-Better Community chairman and past Diana president.

Dianas selected St. Michael's Mission and High School in St. Michael, Arizona as this year's charity. The Mission boards over 300 American Indian children from various tribes during September through May.

During the first part of October a clothing drive will be held to collect clothing, jewelry and personal articles to be sent to the Mission as the school receives no government or state aid.

Las Palmas School for emotionally disturbed girls will be the group's other major philanthropy, stated Mrs. Arthur Callen, philanthropy chairman, who reported on the birthday party Dianans gave to "Garnet Cottage" at Las Palmas.

Mrs. James McPherson, Civic Service Chairman reported that seven Dianans worked at the T.B. Association stuffing envelopes while making a television short on Christmas Seals recently.

Mrs. Raymond Williams, Americanism Chairman, announced that an eight week study course on Communism will be held.

Forthcoming donations include a check with unwrapped gifts to be given to veterans at Sawtelle and Long Beach Veterans Hospital as gifts for their wives, a tree to be given to South Coast Botanical Gardens and a Girl Scout flag for the club-sponsored troop.

Members will contribute funds at each meeting so that the base of the statue of Liberty can be completed by the General Confederation.

Bowling will start for members and past Dianans on September 19th according to Mrs. Wallace Opstad.

Classes on table decorations will be open for Dianans announced Mrs. Christ Saunders, who also stated that Diana receipt books will go on sale in November.

The Redondo Beach Woman's Club has offered the Dianans a crafts table at their Christmas Bazaar on November 14.

Mrs. Anthony Credico reported the Diana and Chamber of Commerce Shipwreck party will be held September 20th.

The Dianans are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership.

Proceeds are to go to philanthropic projects.