'Slippery Gulch' Plans Finalized

Final arrangement for the "Slippery Gulch Night" at Torrance Moose Lodge on Saturday Sept. 28, were announced this week by Governor Joseph Marley and Lorraine Walker, senior regent of Torrance Chapter 44, Women of The Moose.

Co-chairmen for the evening of fun in the Old West Style will be Mrs. Jean Northcutt and Melvin Coates.

All Moose members are being encouraged to dress in the attire of the old west and come to their Moose home at 1744 West Carson St. for an evening of fun and relaxing. Sheriff Melvin Coates, Junior Governor of Torrance Moose Lodge, and his deputies will provide the customers for Judge Ross Britt's Kangaroo Court.

There will be dancing from 6 p.m. to 1 p.m. to the melodies of "John Plata and His Westerners" playing all kinds of music from tunes of the golden west to popular music of the sixties.

At 11 p.m. a buffet dinner will be served under the leadership of Mrs. Gerald Coplen, membership chairman, and Mrs. Clifford Kloppeborg, homemaking chairman of the Women of the Moose Chapter. "Visions of the Future" will be provided by Mrs. William Bell, Women of the Moose publicity chairman.

This will be the third annual presentation of the Slippery Gulch Night program at the Torrance Moose Lodge. It is one of the few adult only activities the family fraternity presents each year.

Luau Dinner Dance Slated For Oct. 18

Ave Maria Council No. 3 of the Ladies of Columbus and Fernin Lasuen Council of the Knights of Columbus will present its annual luau dinner and dance on Saturday night, Oct. 5, in the Knights of Columbus hall, 331 North Birch in Hawthorne.

A social hour will begin at 6:30 p.m. followed by a luau feast catered by Sorenson's Caterers beginning at 7:30 p.m. There will be entertainment during dinner. Dancing to Al Gervais and his Orchestra will round out the evening's festivities.

Tickets are $5 per person and may be purchased by calling Lady Francis Eyraud (OS 5-6768) or Knight Larry O'Malley (OS 6-6298).

Lady George Neeland is in charge of furnishing appropriate decorations. Grand Lady Thomas Hufford and Knight Larry O'Malley are chairmen of the gala affair.

DIP IDEA

Dress red tomato slices with a combination of sliced California avocado, sour cream and drained minced clams. Serve as a Western-style salad or place avocado-clam mixture in "dip" bowl and circle with cherry tomatoes as a party appetizer.

PTA NEWS

ACCENT ON YOUTH

"Accent on Youth" is the theme chosen by the North High PTA for the coming year's programs, which will include six association meetings.

The Oct. 16 meeting will be the annual "Back to School" program for all parents." On Nov. 18, after a brief business meeting, the Torrance Unified School District Education board members will conduct a regular school board meeting at this high school.

The combined music departments will present the Christmas program, on Dec. 18.

In February, the association will honor past presidents and honorary life membership members.

The March meeting will include the election of officers and a presentation by the drama department.

The homemaking department will present a fashion show at the May meeting.

Program planning was conducted by Mrs. Loris Sim, first vice president, with Mrs. William Cassida, president; Dr. R. D. Guengerich, school principal; and Mmes. Robert Dean; Robert Brigham; C. P. DeLange; W. R. Towell; O. R. Allison; and Morgan B. Simmons assisting.

MEET TEACHERS

Perry Elementary School PTA will hold its first meeting of the school year tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the school Cafetorium. There will be a short business meeting under the direction of Mrs. Elias Perry, PTA president.

Theme for the September meeting will be "know your child and meet his teacher." In keeping with this theme, group conferences will follow the meeting. Parents who attend will have opportunity to meet with teachers and discuss activities for the coming year.

Following the group conferences, coffee will be served in the cafetorium. There will be a cake sale, and slices of cake will be sold. The proceeds from this sale will go to the welfare fund. This fund is used to provide help for needy families over the coming holidays.

The Perry PTA executive board will be hostesses for the evening. A special invitation has been extended to all parents of new students to come and get acquainted with the teachers and the school.

Keystone Women Oppose Cityhood

The Keystone Women's Club held a special meeting at their club house on Sept. 10 at 127 E. 220th St. to determine whether the membership was for or against cityhood for Carson.

A lengthy discussion, with questions and answers by the members, ensued. After facts and figures were studied a vote was taken. The Keystone Woman's Club went on record as opposing the present plan for cityhood for Carson.

The common opinion expressed was that a city without enough industry could not hope to prosper.

and Susan McLain. Miss Shaughnessy is pictured supervising in rear. The girls also prepared colored egg shells to be used by Confraternity Craft Students in the making of mosaic pictures. Members of the Senior Mission group are currently preparing Christmas boxes of clothing, blankets, and doctor gowns and medical supplies to be sent overseas. —PRESS photo
