

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

☆

Weekend Fiesta Set

Fiesta time will be featured tomorrow and Sunday at St. Margaret Mary Parish, Eshelman at 255th St., Lomita.

Highlight of the 20th annual event will be a barbecue dinner prepared under the supervision of Tony Brandelli, to be served from noon to 7 p.m. Sunday.

Booths will feature: Mother Goose Land, country throwing, roll-a-ball, confetti eggs, doll booth, cotton candy, popcorn, parcel post, snow cones, fish bowl, novelty booth, white telephant sale, hamburgers, hot dogs, Mexican food and home baked goods.

The event is open to the public.

FIESTA TIME will be celebrated this week-end at St. Margaret Mary Parish, Eshelman at 225th St., Lomita. Open to the public, the event will feature game booths and food stands. Highlight will be a barbecue dinner to be served from noon to 7 p.m. Sunday. Pictured, from left, are Mmes. Paul Aytotte, Leo C. Julian and Russ Coleman.

—PRESS Photo

MRS. DANIEL LEFTAULT
... former Mary Ann Davis

Couple Returns from San Diego Honeymoon

Miss Mary Ann Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Davis of 1512 Beech Ave., became the bride of Daniel George Leftault, son of Mrs. Florence Leftault and the late Daniel Leftault of 1556 N. 215th St. in a nuptial mass celebrated at 12:15 Saturday, Sept. 7, at Nativity Church.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Father William O'Toole before 300 guests.

Escorted by her father, the bride was dressed in a floor length gown of white peau d'ange lace fashioned with a jeweled Sabrina neckline, a fitted bodice and wrist-length tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt terminated in a flowing chapel train. A Swedish crown of beads and crystal held a bouffant elbow-length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and orchids.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Judith Ann Davis, who wore a Hawaiian rose peau de soie gown and carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. Bridesmaids were the Misses Virginia Cornacione, Kathy Thomas, Juanita Roy and Deborah Morris. They were attired in cranberry peau de soie gowns and carried pink elfe roses. Wearing Hawaiian rose peau de soie gowns, flower girls were Linda and Debra Schloss.

Best man was Richard Schloss and ring bearer was Steven Hanks. Ushers included: Vincent Van Davis, Cory Hansen, David Burkman and Ronnie Pettigrew.

The nuptial mass was sung by William Pilon, accompanied by Mary Ann Schulz.

A buffet luncheon was served at the Elks Lodge. Miss Victoria Podgurski presided at the guest book and Miss Kathy Strellich assisted.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Davis chose a silver champagne gown with moss green accessories. The mother of the bridegroom selected a royal blue dress with matching accessories. The bride is a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School, class of '63 and the bridegroom, who manages a catering business, was graduated in 1960 from Washington High School in Los Angeles.

Following a one-week honeymoon in San Diego, the couple are at home in Torrance.

St. Philomena Women Plan Events for Month

Women's Communion Sunday will be conducted at 8 a.m. mass in honor of St. Philomena Women's Council Sunday at 21900 S. Main St.

An adult social will take place at 8 p.m. Thursday in the school under sponsorship of St. Mark's Guild. Chairmen will be Mmes. Ralph Solis and Leonard Lekavich.

Baked goods sale will follow masses Sunday, Oct. 13. Hostesses will be Mmes. Clyde Armijo and John Pini-azek of St. Anthony's Guild.

St. Elizabeth's Guild will sponsor an adult social in the school hall Thursday Oct. 24, under chairmanship of Mmes. Andrew McCormack and Armando Silvas.

Annual school carnival and dime-a-dip dinner will be featured on the school grounds from 1 to 6 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 27.

Council members will hold their monthly business meeting at 8 p.m. Monday, Oct. 28 at the school hall. A Tupperware Party will be hosted by Mrs. Martin Lydon following the meeting.

Altar duties for the month of October will be performed by St. Jude's Guild, directed by Mmes. Armando Brunetti and James La-Coste.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served after all Masses each Sunday. St. Anthony's Guild will be in charge.

Refreshments were served by St. Catherine's Guild. Mmes. Burton McPherson and John Geerer were presiding hostesses.

PTA News

TEACHERS LUNCHEON

Hickory Elementary School PTA Board members recently held a "Teachers Luncheon" in the school cafeteria. Dr. Dale Coogan, principal, introduced the faculty members, including five new ones. They are: Mmes. John Nelson, Dave Felando, James Boyd, and Miss Marilyne Akutagawa, and William Goodman.

Chairmen ratified for the 1963-64 term include: Mmes. Frank Tyrell, art and poster; Gerald Dart, budget; Delmar Michlar, citizenship; Andy Cordova, civil defense; Harry O'Connor, Founder's Day; Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Bloomfield, hospitality; Mmes. Dale Nettland, co-hospitality; Harry Atpapoff, inspiration, spiritual; Ken Judd, legislation; Harold Calkins, library; Dr. Dale Coogan, men's participation; Thomas Carter, movies, radio, television; Mrs. Wallace Patrick, newsette; Richard Jones, parent education; William Roberts, pre-school education; John Knapp, publications; John Patrick, publicity; Paul Mackay, record book; Willard Olsen, recreation, culture; Raymond Silagy, safety, juvenile protection; Frank Knight, student welfare; and Charles Sheetz, music.

Hickory School held its third annual parent-teacher group conference Wednesday. Purpose of the meeting was to acquaint parents with the school staff, observe materials being used, and to discuss the educational program for the year.

TEACHERS BRUNCH

Fleming Junior High School Parent Teacher Association executive board served brunch to the teachers and staff before the beginning of the school year. More than 100 persons were served in the teachers cafeteria by Mmes. Helen Scott, Robert Rohl, Fredrick Eggleston, Ted Coggins and Ralph Robertson.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

"If you carrot all, help our family multiply by joining the PTA," is theme for the annual membership drive announced Mrs. William Freed. The drive, to be held by the Philip Magruder PTA beginning Monday with cash prizes going to the two classes with the highest percentages of new members.

An executive board meeting is scheduled for Thursday at the home of the president.

Mrs. Herman Redmerski, president, will conduct the first meeting of the year at 1 p.m. Wednesday in the school cafeteria.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Mary Long, curriculum assistant from the staff of Rod McDaniel of the Educational Materials Building. Mrs. Long will explain how the books, records, filmstrips and other materials housed at the E.M.B. may be used by teachers in the classrooms. A paper drive will be held the last week in October.

TARGET FOR TODAY

"Target for Today—PTA" is the theme chosen by the Lincoln Elementary Parent Teacher Association for their membership drive, which begins Oct. 7 through 11. Mrs. A. C. Bongiorno, chairman announced that all classes that receive 100 percent membership will be treated to a free movie.

The "Lincoln Hi-Lites" made its debut this week. The monthly newsette was compiled by the co-chairmen, Mrs. S. Paldino and Mrs. W. Bachmann.

Mrs. Earl Pitts, ways and means chairman announced that the Kookie Kid Carnival to be held on Oct. 25 will feature such booths as Spook House, Country Store, Fish Pond, Food booth on the midway and student dance.

Fourteen members of the executive board met with the Torrance Council of Parents and Teachers to participate in their yearly workshops at the First Christian Church in Torrance recently.

Attending the Men's Leadership Development Conference in Norwalk for the Thirty-third District was Warren Bachmann, inspirational chairman of the Lincoln PTA.

Group conferences were held Wednesday evening. Refreshments were in the school cafeteria by: Mmes. Harold Erickson, chairman, Ray Takigawa, Frank Masunaka, and Larry Bego.

First association meeting for the new year will be at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 10 at the school, featuring a get-acquainted ice cream social.

CITIZEN ROLES

Theme of programs at Torrance High School PTA meetings this year will concern citizen roles.

Programs will include: Dual Citizen, Oct. 9; Informed Citizen, Nov. 6; Reverent Citizen, December; Civic Citizen, January 20; Active Citizen, Feb. 5; Interested Citizen, March 4; Franchised Citizen, April 1; and Foresighted Citizen, May.

Parent Information—"Koffee Klatches" are to be held in different feeder school areas to answer any questions on school curriculum or whatever questions people might have to be answered by a school administrator.

First meeting will be Oct. 7 at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Bernard Lassere, 2410 W. 229th St.

Second meeting is set for Oct. 24 at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. John Augenstein, 1103 Cerise.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE of the Torrance High School PTA will be conducted Monday through Friday, Oct. 7 thru 11. Pictured are, from left, M. Caldwell, principal; Mrs. John Tweedy, president; Mrs. J. W. Woyt, membership chairman; and Jane Allen, student representative. —PRESS Photo

Beta Sigma Phi Council Holds Luau

The Alondra Club at 16141 S. Prairie was the setting for the annual luau sponsored by the South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi, Saturday, Sept. 21.

A hostess committee made up of members of Xi Zeta Lambda, headed by Mrs. D. Nardelli, greeted 150 guests. A cocktail hour from 7 to 8 p.m. preceded a buffet dinner of Hawaiian food.

Entertainment was furnished by Melissa Barnhart, who danced "Lively Hula Hands," and Merry Kirkham who performed "Little Brown Girl" and "The Hawaiian War Chant."

Guests were given Hula lessons by the two dancers. Mrs. Andy Foster was named best Hula dancer of the evening.

Best male hula honors went to Tom Cleaver with consolation prizes for the two contestants going to Mrs. Ethel Eichelberger and Lindy Bush.

BROTHER JOHN HONORED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Brother John A. McNeil, S.M. was honored on his 24th birthday at a dinner party given Friday evening by his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome G. Doyle, at their home, 24455 Madison Ave.

Also present were the Doyle's three children—Patrick, 2; Peggy, 1 and Brother John's namesake, Johnny, five months old.

Unable to attend were Brother John's grandmother, Mrs. Nina Hedberg, his two uncles, Ivan and Robert Hedberg, and his aunt Mrs. Kay Printy, all of Los Angeles.

A shrimp dinner was served followed by a decorated birthday cake. Brother John is a science teacher at Chamade Preparatory Catholic Boys' H.S., Canoga Park.

Andy Foster was awarded a monkey pod salad set which had been purchased in the islands by Mrs. Bert Whitted, president of South Bay Area Council on her recent visit there.

Special guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dillman of Whittier, president of Southern California Council of Beta Sigma Phi Mrs. Kitty Mel-Lodge, sponsor of South Bay Area Council and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Whitted.

Sisterhood Sets Succos Celebration

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will celebrate the Success holiday with a "Succos Social" at 8:39 p.m. Saturday in the Community Hall of Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

Israeli entertainers will be presented in program of song and dance and music for social dancing will be provided by a band.

Theme of Succos, a joyous festival of the harvest, will be carried out in decor and refreshments. Fruits of the season, as well as other traditional dishes, will be served and wines and liquor will be available.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Paul Klinghoffer, Torrance, who will be assisted by Mmes. Dean Silbiger, Albert Stock, Harold Wolpert, Peter Guttman, Barbara Kessler, all of Torrance; David Coldenberg, Redondo Beach, Richard Mayer, Palos Verdes Estates, and Jerome Unger, wife of the Rabbi.

Tickets and information may be obtained from Mmes. Clark Hughes, aFR 1-5438, or Leonard Cole, FR 5-0878.

Twin Mothers to Hostess Regional Meet

South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will act as hostess for a regional Mothers of Twins Clubs workshop to be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Torrance Y.W.C.A.

The yearly event for 10 Southern California Chapters will enable representatives from each chapter to have an ingathering of discussions and educational information on management of twin clubs.

Mrs. Andy Meier, president and Mrs. Sam Major, corresponding secretary, have invited clubs from Inglewood, San Fernando, La Crescenta, Orange, Whittier, Long Beach, Santa Ana, Hollywood, Pomona, and Riverside.

Each officer and chairman of the South Bay group will head a discussion table on the activities of her committee. Groups will be divided under the headings of elected officers, philanthropy, publicity, ways and means, and membership.

At the conclusion of the round-table talks, a resume will be given the South Bay members.

PLUG-IN PATIO PARTY

A "plug-in patio party" will be sponsored by the South Bay Homecrafters at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Southern California Edison Co., 125 S. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach.

Small appliances for patio use will be demonstrated and brunch served. Donations of 75¢ per person will be used to purchase material for slippers for children at Harbor General Hospital. The public is invited.

Persons desiring additional information are asked to contact Mrs. A. B. Cowie at 371-8240 or Mrs. A. L. Bauwens at 379-3860.