Recruiters Change At Navy Office

Chief Boatswain's Mate Vandorne E. Isaak has relieved Chief Quartermaster Ernest G. Roth as recruiter in charge of the Torrance Navy Recruiting Station, 1520 Cravens Street effective today. Chief Isaak reported here after completing a two year tour of duty as recruiter in charge of the Navy Recruiting Station at Inglewood, California.

Chief Roth is scheduled for retirement on Dec 2 of this year after completing over 20 years of Navy service. He has served aboard cruisers, destroyers, minesweepers and Navy oil tankers.

Chief Isaak is a 18 year Navy veteran who has served aboard destroyers, troop transports, minesweepers, crash boats and aircraft carriers.

NEW RECRUITER Chief Boatswain's Mate Vandorne E. Isaak says farewell to Chief Quartermaster Ernest G. Roth who leaves the Torrance recruiting office this week for a scheduled retirement. Chief Isaak has extended an open invitation to the public to visit or call him at the office for any information about the Navy.

Co-Rec Club Wiener Roast First Activity

A Wiener Roast on Oct. 12 will be the first activity for a new CoRec Club announced by the Torrance Recreation Department. The club is for 7th and 8th graders living in the West area of Torrance. A committee of students from the Victor School area working with Don Ahern, club advisor, is planning the Wiener Roast which will be held at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd., 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Oct. 12. Prospective members are invited to attend. Applications for membership, 50 cents per year, will be available at the event and also at local parks and the Recreation Department. Applications must be signed by a parent or guardian in addition to the student's signature.

Co-Rec Clubs are activity groups providing a variety of wholesome activities for this age group. Membership is limited to an equal number of boys and girls up to a total of 250 in each club. Members are notified by mail of activities each month. Some of the activities in past years have been sport nights, surfing movies, ice skating, swimming parties, dinner parties, and trips to P.O.P. and Disneyland.

Adviser to the group are regular Recreation Department leaders experienced in working with teen-agers. Parents are always welcome and are invited to attend events. For further information about the club, call Edith Simpelaar, Supervisor, at the Recreation Department, FA 8-5310, Ext. 263.

'Y' Building Plans Told

A glimpse of the plans of the YMCA for its new building of the future was given Monday night at the meeting of the Board of Education of the Torrance Unified School District.

The building was described as single-storied. It would have meeting rooms, offices and a hall for social gatherings.

The YMCA officials offered to bid on a portion of an elementary school site at 229th Place and Madison St.

The area the YMCA is interested in is 2.64 acres of a 12.64 acre site of which 10 acres only would be needed for the future school.
