

PROBING FOR TREASURE are members of the South-Park Area of Council of Catholic Women of St. James Parish. Pirates will claim their loot at a Las Vegas Night to be sponsored by the group Saturday, Oct. 19. Setting for the 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. event will be the Eagles Hall, Redondo Beach. Main attraction of the treasure chest will be a free day at Disneyland for a family. Pictured are, from left, Mmes. Bernie Bols, chairman; Jerome E. Mulcahy, area director; Michael Zappitelli, refreshments; and Thomas Thomsen, co-chairman.

—PRESS photo

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

Spouses to Supervise Stove for Las Vecinas

Husbands will flip the flapjacks Sunday, Oct. 20 when members of Las Vecinas Women's Club sponsor their annual pancake breakfast and fun fair. The event will take place from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. at El Retiro Park.

Newest attraction will be a zoo featuring unusual animals and birds supervised by "Safari hunters" and "Ubangi natives."

Animals to appear in the zoo will include: "Jumbo" the white burro, two Shetland colts, a black monkey, tropical birds and a display of reptiles in glass cages.

Highlighting the booths will be a pirates den with hidden treasures and live pirates. Other booths will feature: a bean bag throw, toy toss, white elephant stand and cotton candy.

A grown up doll complete with wardrobe will be raffled.

Entertainment will be provided by the Las Vecinas

Chorus directed by Mrs. E. R. Harvey.

Co-chairmen for the breakfast and fun fair are Mrs. Donald V. Edwards and Mrs.

John W. Walti. Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. E. A. Bowen — phone 378-6442, or at the entrance of the park, Oct. 20.

MRS. PHILLIP CASTRONOVA
... former Judy Van Bellehem

Judy Van Bellehem Joins Bridal Ranks

At home in Lakewood after a two week honeymoon in Las Vegas and Carmel are Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Castronovo. The couple exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony performed by Rev. John O'Byrne at 11 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 7 at St. Lawrence Martyr Church, Redondo Beach.

The bride is the former Judy Van Bellehem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van Bellehem of 239 Paseo de las Delicias, Redondo Beach, and the bridegroom is son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Castronovo of 4902 E. Wilbern, Compton.

Two hundred guests attended the wedding. Decorations included bouquets of white chrysanthemums and stock on the altar and two baskets of bronze, white, and yellow mums and white stock before the altar.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown fashioned with a scoop neckline, lace midriff, and bouffant skirt which terminated in a chapel train. Her elbow length veil cascaded from a tiara of lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, white elf roses, stephanotis and butterfly orchids.

Maid of honor was Miss Corliss Fischer who was dressed in a floor length honey gold brocade gown fashioned with elbow length sleeves and a bell shaped skirt. She carried bronze spider mums with matching tea roses. Attired in costumes identical to that of the maid of honor were Mrs. Peter J. Gimino and Miss Renetta Lenz, bridesmaids.

Flower girl was Michele Rizzo who was costumed in a floor length avocado green silk dress with matching hat. Her nosegay was comprised of bronze spider mums with matching tea roses.

Best man was Robert Carrad and ushers included: Frank Bollinger, Don Bollinger, Donald Dear and Steve Rizo. Billy zGene Maloney was ring bearer.

Musical selections included traditional wedding music and a special rendition of "Ave Marie."

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Sue Brasher presided at the guest book and Mrs. E. D. Dear and Miss Rose Marie Wolf served.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Van Bellehem chose a turquoise chiffon dress with a turquoise feather hat and matching shoes. The mother of the bridegroom selected a pink dress of lace and crepe with pink hat and shoes.

A graduate of South High School, the bride attended El Camino and is employed by Imperial Household Shipping Co. The bridegroom, who is employed by Aerojet-General Corp., is a graduate of Dominguez High School and an Air Force veteran.

BEACH PARTY

Bethel 36, International Order of Job's Daughters, recently held a beach party with the Gardena De Molay at Playa del Rey Beach.

Guests were Judy Gustafson, Joanne Johnston, Joeline Elliott, Linda Kapigian, Jan Foyle, Gail St. George, Linda Livings, Betsy O'Dell, Sandy Coleman. Also present were Mrs. Hazel Johnston, guardian, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin O'Dell, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Platz and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gustafson.

Hot dogs, chips and roasted marshmallows were enjoyed by all. Volleyball, football and surfing were among the many activities.

The girls of Bethel 36 also enjoyed a trip to Santa Catalina Island with Mrs. Hazel Johnston supervising, recently.

YWCA Teenagers to Paint Curbs

During the remainder of this month teenage members of the YWCA are painting house numbers on curbs to raise funds toward city-wide projects that include leadership training, special awards, and service projects.

Twelve to 17 year old girls in Torrance will have an opportunity beginning Sunday to participate in a nation-wide teenage enrollment in the Young Women's Christian Association. Occasion is the Annual National Y-Teen Roll Call. Theme is

"Y-teens Count at Home and Abroad."

Program available to Torrance YWCA Teenage members includes club program and class activities in charm, pep squad, slim and trim, and special Saturday teen dance nights.

Teenage girls and boys who join the YWCA, take part in planning and conducting projects of their own choosing. Y-Teen program provides opportunities for fun, friendship and service for all teenagers.

There are opportunities to develop as leaders, exchange ideas, and share responsibilities with adults.

In addition, as Y-Teens in the YWCA, the young people are members of an organization that works for peace and justice in more than 70 countries around the world.

Goal for roll call week is 1,000 teenage membership, announces Mrs. Adam Krauszer, teenage committee chairman.

Persons desiring further information on how to become a teenage member of the Torrance YWCA are asked to call FA 0-2255.

Popular summer teen record hops will be continued during the year for seventh to 10th graders in Saturdays 7:30 to 11 p.m. Dress for the evening is school clothes. Teenage participants will be meeting this week to plan special events, dance contests, prizes and refreshments for coming dances.

Installation Tea Held by Marymount

Grix Christopher Drama Club of Marymount College, Palos Verdes, sponsored an installation tea at 3:30 Wednesday in Pellissier Hall.

Miss Virginia Barnell, head of the Theatre Arts Department, and Mrs. Geoffrey Warren, assistant professor of the Theatre Arts department poured. The tea table was decorated with autumn flowers.

Miss Barnell recently returned from a summer tour of Europe, where she visited Marymount Colleges in London and Rome.

The entire faculty was invited to the tea where were installed: Miss Patricia Kelly, president; Miss Judi Burdette, vice president; Miss Liza Garson, secretary; Miss Christian Snyder, treasurer, and Miss Katherine Free, publicity.

PANCAKES AND COTTON CANDY will vie to please the palate Sunday, Oct. 20, when Las Vecinas sponsors its annual pancake breakfast and fun fair at El Retiro Park. The runway will be open from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m., featuring game booths and an animal zoo.

Pictured are, from left, Miss Colette Barton and the Mmes. Ross Potts, personnel chairman; Don Malone, co-chairman of white elephant booth; and Robert Pinkney, equipment chairman.

—PRESS photo

Communion Breakfast Celebrated

St. Gerard Council Knights of Columbus held their Quarterly Communion and family breakfast Sunday at the Nativity Parish, it was announced by Charles Butterfield, Grand Knight.

They received Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass and had breakfast immediately afterwards at the Nativity Annex.

Special guests were the Catholic Daughters, Court St. Catherine, who also received Communion Sunday in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass.

Chairman of the breakfast is Frank Stone, who was assisted by Bill Hammond, Harold Popa, Jim Neary, Harvey Lee, Bill Crotty, Leo Winters, Dick Joosten, and other members of the council.

PTA News

BACK TO SCHOOL NIGHT

Classes will begin promptly at 7 p.m. at North High Back to School Night Wednesday. Parents will receive a copy of their student's schedule and will have the opportunity to visit each classroom for a 10-minute discussion period.

During the brief PTA business meeting, to be held in the gymnasium, Dr. R. D. Guengerich, school principal, will welcome parents. Bruce Cole, Associated Student Body president, will lead in the flag salute.

The North High School 17 piece dance band, under the direction of Robert Jones, will entertain.

Refreshments will be served in the covered patio at the conclusion of the sixth period "class."

"This 'Back to School' program is a cooperative venture by the North High PTA and the school personnel," announces Mrs. William Cassida, PTA president.

"We feel that it is one of the best opportunities the parents have to become acquainted with their student's teachers and to learn of the educational opportunities offered by our fine high school," she stated.

SPOOK'S SKADADLE

The 223rd Street PTA Board chose the theme Spook's Skadaddle for their Halloween festival Oct. 26. Mmes. Mike Kawamoto, Horace Sloan, Kay Moran, and Ed Reidling, reported at board meeting on the festival.

Chairmen ratified were: Mmes. Willard Hober, parliamentarian; Gerald Witt, parent education; Ed Reidling, ways and means.

Mrs. Edgar Formanek, United Way chairman related ways in which the United Way helps the PTA and the Tenth District and announced that the drive will be started in November. Interested persons are asked to call Mrs. Formanek at FA 8-4363.

Mrs. Dwanye Witty, magazine chairman, reported on California PTA magazine.

MRS. VICKI PELLERITO
... home economist

New Home Economist Appointed

Mrs. Vicki J. Pellerito is the new home economist for Southern California Gas Company's Southwest Division, reports G. M. Babbe, manager of the division which serves the Inglewood area and entire South Bay region.

A home economics graduate of UCLA, Mrs. Pellerito has been affiliated with the Gas Company since leaving the Westwood campus in June of last year.

Recent addition to the Inglewood headquarters office will be available to area residents to demonstrate gas appliances according to Mrs. Pellerito. She may be contacted for assistance by telephoning OR 1-0495 or OS 9-2241 as may Mrs. Beatrice Webb, senior home economist for the division.

Mrs. Pellerito's duties will include home service calls, conducting cooking schools and presenting demonstrations before school classes and other groups.