

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

EXAMINING SCARECROW as they peer through masks are costumed members of the Victor Woman's Club. Club members will dress in keeping with their "secret ambitions" for a Halloween party to be given at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lopin, Mitchel Lopin, Richard Shively and Roger Orman.

PICKING CLOWN'S POCKETS are Karen Anderson and Danny Bliss, who plan to pull out prizes tomorrow at the Hickory Elementary School carnival. Featured at the 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. event will be game booths, refreshments, silhouette drawings and old-fashioned bakery. Richard Leibowitz is Mystery Pick-a-Pocket Clown. Looking on is Mrs. Harley Gray, president of Hickory PTA.

Hallowe'en Festivities Fill Weekend Calendar

Although the witches and black cats won't be making their official visit to Torrance until Thursday, youngsters throughout the city will herald the Hallowe'en season this weekend at a series of carnivals which which will get underway tonight.

Sponsored by PTA's as a combined fun - fund-raising venture, the carnivals will feature costume contests, booths and games—and in some cases, even dinner.

Early-bird celebrants will be students at Halldale Ave. and Bonita Street Schools. Nine hundred children are scheduled to parade in costume at Halldale Ave. School at 10 a.m. today preceding a bake sale to be conducted by Mrs. Harold Hughes. The annual festival at Bonita Street School is set for 1:30 p.m. today. Co-chairmen are Mrs. James Hamilton and Mrs. Donald Bradley.

Pupils at Perry School, 17831 Prairie Ave., will begin festivities at 5 p.m. today. Highlighting booths will be a country store which will feature homemade articles and craft items. Mrs. Don Kruth is chairman.

"Mad Hatters Dream" will keynote the theme of the Yukon School carnival, set for 6 to 9 p.m. today. Maddest hat will capture a prize.

Getting under way at 11 a.m. tomorrow will be the Jefferson School carnival which will feature a costume parade contest at noon, booths, and a cake walk.

"Spooks Skeddadle" at 223rd St. School, set for 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. tomorrow, will offer a spook house and circus.

Spaghetti dinner will highlight tomorrow's carnival at Anza School to be held from 2 to 8 p.m. Mrs. Raymond Cheney is dinner chairman and Mrs. Vincent Accurso is carnival chairman.

Events scheduled for the public by other groups include a ghost and goblins dance to be sponsored by Torrance East Little League at 9 p.m. tomorrow at the American Legion Hall, 1109 Border Ave.; a Dime-A-Dip dinner and white elephant sale to be conducted from 1 to 6 p.m. Sunday at St. Philomena School, 21900 S. Main St. by the St. Philomena's Council; and a carnival to be held at 6 p.m. Hallowe'en night at McMasters Park by the Pilot Club and North Torrance Civic Improvement Assn.

MAD HATTERS at Yukon Elementary School will try their skill at concocting chapeaux for tonight's carnival. Prize will go to the wildest. Modeling homemade headgear are, from left, Mmes. Paul Hughes, Robert Frank, Donald Wilson and Richard Marsh of the Yukon Elementary PTA. Carnival time is 6 to 9 p.m.

PHOTOS

BY

DAVID

RANNS

WITCHES' BREW is stirred up by Mrs. Joseph Carrier of Dianas as club members prepare to take Hallowe'en fixings out to Las Palmas School for Emotionally Disturbed Girls tomorrow. In addition to providing luncheon, games and costumes for the girls at the school, Dianas will donate individual and cottage gifts. Co-chairmen are Mrs. Raymond Williams and Mrs. Carrier. Assisting are Mmes. Clifford Campbell, left, William Irgens, right, and John Hansford, Charles Hillinger, Arthur Callen and Sara Mitchell, not pictured.

KOOKIE KID KARNIVAL will keynote the theme of Hallowe'en festivities to be conducted from 6 to 9 p.m. today at Lincoln Elementary School. Proceeds will go to Lincoln PTA philanthropies. Costume parade will be featured. Pointing out sign to students Gail Pitts, Bob Mooney and Kenneth Sprague, from left, is Mrs. Jacquie Pitts.