SWINGING DOWN A LANE

In the state tournament which was held in Stockton a few months ago, the National Fifty and Over Bowling Club was represented by five determine and hopeful men. They were going to prove that just because they were fifty years or over they could do just as good and maybe better than the younger men.

Those in question are Nelson Hopkins, Art Grueger, Alvin Henning, Tony Kowalczyk and Bill Caudle. These fighting tigers of the bowling lanes finished with a 2073 team event. Alvin Henning rolled a 765 in the singles, even with handicap that is good bowling. They forgot all about ever coming in the money and much to every one's surprise they received $30 for team event and Alvin Henning is framing the $7 he received for his singles. Congratulations.

Over at Palos Verdes Bowl they have a Wednesday night 4 game Ladies Majors League. These gals rate right up there with the best. Dee Ruddy, who is doing such a fine job with the Junior Travel League, rolled a 788 series, 203 high game, Jan Zuber, 738, 216; Mary South, 729, 209; Alice Anthony, 726, 201; Doris Valentine, 722, 213; Julie Prete, 719, 201. Marge Fox, who recently won a diamond pin for her outstanding bowling efforts, rolled a 726, and last but by no means least Grace Santa a nice 719.

In the Junior Dept. The Junior Travel Classic League has the P.V. team out in front, they had to get past the Holiday Bowl team to keep the lead, this they managed to do last Saturday. On the P.V. team Tom Zuber rolled games of 213, 217, 198 for a 628 series, Marcia Miller the only gal on the league manages to stay in there each week she had a nice 211 game. Joel Kanaster a 205; Tom Ong from Holliday, 221; Steve Laruso, South West Bowl, 208; Mel Partvich, 225; Ray Hamaguchi, 207; Jeff Roberts, Paradise Bowl, 200; Dennis Kalz, Mar Vista, 202; Rick Berger, LLo-Da-Mar, 201. Next week these champion juniors will bowl at Paradise Bowl.

P.V. Imperial 450 Travil Treo came up with some nice series. Vee Mema, 525; Rhodie Berry, 550, with 204 game; Naomi Vandiver, 200, with 549 series, and Alice Saffell, 513 series.

I am going to take a vacation for a month, so will talk to you again in December.

Good Bowling But Above All Good Sportsmanship.

Homecrafters Set Potluck

South Bay Homecrafters will meet Tuesday, Nov. 12, at El Nido Park.

Program for the 10 a.m. meeting will be a variety of crafts and the making of slippers for the children at Harbor General Hospital.

Hostesses for the potluck luncheon at noon will be Mrs. Emilie McManus and Mrs. Gladys Van Winkle. All ladies of the South Bay are invited to participate. Persons desiring information are asked to call Mrs. A. B. Cowie at 371-8240 or Mrs. A. L. Bauwens at 379-3860.

School Opens Reading Clinic

A reading clinic for children who have fallen behind their class, or have more serious reading problems, has been opened by Scherich's South Bay School, 1108 Tullita, Redondo Beach, FR 5-0469.

Each child is tested on the first day of attendance, and a program is planned around each student's individual needs.

According to Scherich there are many causes for reading difficulties, some of which are perceptual problems, or not having learned or missed one or more steps in the reading process. These factors are determined and from this information the child's program is planned. Overcoming a reading problem is hard and takes time in most cases. However, when all the senses of learning are used, eyes to see—ears to hear—fingers to feel, the long road to being a good reader can be shortened.
