

MRS. HARRY LEE HAMILTON
... former Carol Lee Barnum
(Photo by Seeman)

Couple Honeymoons at Lake Arrowhead

Following a Lake Arrowhead honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Hamilton Jr. are at home at McGuire Air Force Base in New Jersey where the bridegroom is serving with the United States Air Force.

The bride is the former Carol Lee Barnum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobfird G. Barnum of 16802 Wilkie Ave., Torrance, and the bridegroom is son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Hamilton of 18109 Faysmith.

Nuptial vows were exchanged at a double-ring ceremony conducted by Father O'Toole at 11 a.m. Saturday Oct. 5 at Nativity Catholic Church. Mr. Barnum gave his daughter in marriage.

For her wedding the bride was dressed in a white silk organza gown with lace appliques fashioned with a chapel train. Her veil cascaded from a silk organza headpiece.

Matron of honor for her sister, Mrs. Wilson Rowe Mitchell Jr. was attired in a sapphire blue sheath with overskirt. Bridesmaids, in matching gowns, were: Mrs. Roseann Ashman and Miss Linda Kirkpatrick.

Sherri Ashman, in a white tulle bouffant dress, was flower girl.

The mother of the bride wore a dusty pink lace dress with matching accessories.

ATTENDING INGATHERING

Recently attending the annual ingathering of the Needlework Guild, held Tuesday in the Toberman Settlement House, San Pedro from Torrance Junior Woman's Club, where several articles of clothing and $15, were donated, were Mrs. James Miesel, philanthropy chairman, and Mrs. David Wade, craft chairman.

The Junior Club is affiliated with California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District 18, Junior membership.

VOLUNTEERS SERVE

United Way Volunteers for the Harbor Area who will be serving Tuesday are: Mmes. Dale Thompson, William Hopkins, Robert Baughman, Robert Comstock, George Elftman, Leo Dube, James Grundy, John F. McCarthy, Jack Chase, Thomas Hanley, Albert Corso, Leslie Hardy and Leonard LeKarrich. Mrs. Robert Gese, co-chairman, is assisting Mrs. Martin Lydon, chairman.

and the mother of the bridegroom selected a powder blue ensemble.

Best man was Stephen Metz and ushers were Tom Toney and Larry Poeske.

Miss Peggy Webb presided at the guest book at the church reception following the ceremony. Assisting were: Mrs. Vera Belle, Mrs. Tracy Kilgore, Mrs. Harry L. Daughters, Miss Nancy Daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Poeske.

Pow Wow Slated for Saturday

Cub Scouts Harbor District pow wow will be held at Carson High School, 22328 So. Main, Wilmington, at noon tomorrow. The training sessions was originally to be held at Stephen M. White school, but was changed to Carson High School due to a teachers meetings to be held at White Jr. High.

Special training courses for the for the adult men leaders will be featured, according to William Culbertson, general chairman. The courses will be: pack administration, how to have a good pack meeting, ceremonies, Webelos den, and outdoor games.

Den mothers will participate in craft and skit workshops.

The pow wow training session is open to all parents interested in Cub Scouts, Cub Masters, Committee chairman, and Den Mothers. Registration fee is a dollar, to include cost of crafts, refreshments, printed material and uniform patch.

Juniors to Feature Floral Arrangements

Fresh and artificial floral arrangements will be among the many features, to be shown at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 13 at the business meeting of Torrance Junior Woman's Club, 1422 Encracia Ave.

Program will be presented by Mary Ann Haslet and Jeannette Altermatt, shop proprietors of "The Girls" shop, according to Mrs. Carl Messmer, program chairman.

Torrance Juniors are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District 18, Junior Membership.

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor ☆

Staff of New College to Address AAUW

The planning staff of the California State College at Palos Verdes will address the American Association of University Women at Manhattan Beach Community Church, 303 South Peck Ave. Monday evening, Nov. 11.

The event is being provided by the program development committees of the Manhattan Beach and Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branches of AAUW.

Members of the Manhattan Beach committee include Mmes. R. J. Wickwire, chairman, and the Mmes. Michael Kokos, L. Wheaton Smith, Virgil Elsner and Jerrold Kiser.

From the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch are Mrs. Frances Scott, chairman and the Mmes. David Steybe, J. C. McLendon, Gunnar Gyllenswan and Harry Peterson.

Members and husbands of the Inglewood, Santa Monica and San Pedro branches have also been invited to attend. The session will begin with coffee at 7:30. The program will follow at 8 p.m.

Featured in the program will be a discussion of the administrative policies of the college by Dr. Cain, a description of the building by Dr. Nethery, an examination of the curriculum by Dr. Gibson and a survey of campus activities by Dr. Milfs.

The program will include time for questions to be answered by the entire planning staff.

The hospitality committee for the evening from the Manhattan Beach Branch includes: Mrs. Phillip Korman, chairman, Mmes. James Ellis, David Kagan, William Lettunich, Roger Schaeffer, William Brooner, Donald Marshall, David Lundberg and James McElliott.

Serving on the hospitality committee from Palos Verdes are Mrs. Calvin Warfield, first vice president; Mrs. Frances Scott, second vice president, and Mrs. H. C. McLendon, community affairs area representative.

South Bay women who are graduates of AAUW-accredited institutions are eligible for membership. Persons desiring further information are asked to contact Mrs. John D. Freeman, Manhattan Beach Branch membership chairman, FR 9-0710 or Mrs. Calvin Warfield, Palos Verdes - Rolling Hills

CDA Court to Receive Members

Plans are under way for a formal reception of new members by Court St. Catherine No. 1378, Catholic Daughters of America. The annual event will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 21 at the Nativity Parish Annex.

Mrs. Harvey Lee, grand regent, and court officers will be attired in white formal gowns and robes of office.

Mrs. Wesley Muzik, district deputy for St. St. Catherine, will be presiding officer. Mrs. Muzik, of Redondo, Court Our Lady of Victory, will explain court functions, colors and symbols to new members.

Mrs. Richard Ban, extension chairman, will accept applications from prospective members through Wednesday. Anyone over 18 who is a practicing Catholic is eligible for membership.

Court officers will preside at the silver service, and refreshments will be served by Mrs. Laurence Derouin and committee including Mmes. F. W. Rick, Robert Snudden, William Hardesty, Alfred Kitto, Frank Forestor, Helen Bishop, Leonard Reid, Lyle O'Hara, Thomas Moore and the Misses Kathryn Shaughnessy, Felice Shaughnessy and Grace Young.

Branch membership chairman, FR 5-1853.

Participants in the program include: Dr. Leo Cain, who was appointed president of the college in January, 1962; Dr. Lyle E. Gibson, dean of instruction; Dr. Joseph Axelrod, dean of the school of humanities and fine arts; Dr. Fischer, dean of the school of natural sciences and mathematics; Dr. Harry Nethery, dean of facilities planning; Dr. Milo Milfs, dean of student af-airs; Clarence Gorchels, college librarian; Robert J. Murray, business manager; and Thomas Bullock, building coordinator.

Former vice-president of San Francisco State College, Dr. Cain has his doctor's degree from Stanford University.

Dr. Gibson was previously head of the department of geography at San Francisco State College. He received his doctorate from the state University of Iowa.

Vows Exchanged During Candlelight Ceremony

Setting for the candlelight wedding of Sharon Dianne Forseth and William R. Lunebring was the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, San Pedro.

Pastor H. L. Peterson officiated at the double-ring ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin P. Forseth of 934 Gastine St. and the son of W. G. Lunebring of Sunset Beach at 8 p.m. Sept. 28.

Baskets of white gladiolus, carnations and cysanthemums banked the altar.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of silk organza and aleon lace fashioned with a chapel train. The wedding dress featured applique lace flowers, seed pearls and aurora crystal sequin trim. Her bouquet of orange blossoms, white carnations and butterfly orchids was sprayed with silver glitter.

Mrs. Jack Ackerman, matron of honor for her sister, wore a floor length gown of lavender peau de soie fashioned with a bell skirt and carried white carnations tipped with lavender.

Bridesmaids were: Miss Mary Stanovich, Mrs. Michael Hamel and Mrs. Donald Knight. They were dressed in costumes similar to that of the maid of honor.

The bride's mother selected an aqua brocade sheath with matching accessories and the bridegroom's grandmother chose a blue sheath with matching jacket.

Attending the bridegroom were Thomas Le Fort, best man; and Steve Russak, Howard Jordan and Jack Ackerman, Jr., ushers.

Musical renditions rendered by Wallace Carr included "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Reception followed at the Assistance League, San Pedro. Mrs. Nick McDaniels attended the guest book.

An employee of the South Bay Store of the May Co., the bride is an alumna of Narbonne High School. She was formerly employed at the Los Angeles County Courthouse.

The bridegroom, who also attended Narbonne High School, is affiliated with Ray Brothers Oil Co. in Long Beach.

Following a honeymoon trip to Carmel and San Francisco, the couple are making their home in Wilfington.

MRS. ROBERT WOERN
... former Paula Ann Johnson
(photo by Seeman)

Newlyweds Make Home in Arizona

At home in Phoenix, Ariz. are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eugene Woern who were married here Saturday, Oct. 5.

The 7:30 p.m. ceremony at the First Methodist Church of Torrance united the former Paul Ann Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Johnson of 918 Acacia Ave., to the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Woern of Phoenix.

One hundred fifty guests witnessed the double-ring exchange performed by Rev. Arthur Nagel before an altar decked with baskets of chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white gown of chiffon over taffeta with a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of white roses and phalaenopsis.

Miss Diane Turner, maid of honor, was dressed in a lavender chiffon dress and carried a bouquet of lavender chrysanthemums. Miss Sheryl Sells was bridesmaid. She was attired in a matching gown.

Mrs. Johnson chose a beige chiffon dress with beige accessories for her daughter's wedding.

Richard L. Johnson was best man. Ushers were Thomas E. Geltz and Norman Fern.

Wedding music included "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" performed by Mrs. Charlotte Tiernan, soloist.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception took place at the church. Presiding at the guest book were Mrs. Richard L. Johnson and Mrs. David Beard.

A graduate of Torrance High School, the bride was employed in the legal division of the county civil service department prior to her wedding. Her husband is presently employed as a fireman in Phoenix.

The newlyweds honeymooned at the Grand Canyon.

Hairstylist Attends Coiffure Guild Show

Ruby Brow of Brow's Hairstyling, 1270 Sartori attended the 28th annual coiffure Guild Show at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles, Monday, Oct. 28.

Highlighting styles displayed the show was a trend toward the natural look, which featured fullness in the crown area and minimum of teasing.

SQUARE DANCE CLASS STARTS

Square dance class for beginners will Saturday night. Registration will be open through Nov. 9, 16, and 23rd. Teenagers and adults are welcome.

Classes will be at Lomita Park, 2442S Eshelman Ave., Lomita, from 8 to 11 p.m. Jacke and Betty Parks will instruct. Persons desiring further information are asked to call DA 6-6229 after 4:30 p.m.

MRS. WILLIAM LUNEBRING
... former Sharon Forseth
(photo by Seeman)

Moose Women Set Installation

Mrs. Charles Kail, library chairman, Torrance Women of the Moose, will hold chapter night installation, Wednesday. Assisting members of her committee are: Mmes. William L. Davis, cora Hill, Carter Dow, and William A. Davis. Mrs. Held, children's librarian, Torrance, will be guest speaker.

Convocation of College of Regents, Women of the Moose was held Oct. 27 at Visalia, California. Mrs. William L. Davis, Junior Graduate Regent was honored with presentation of green cap.

Mrs. George Clay, registration committee and capping officer and Mrs. Lester Rinehart, hospitality, Torrance Chapter 44 were in attendance.

Loyal Order Of Moose Lodge 785 members present included: Joseph Leone, Ross Britt, past governor; Carl Fisher, show director; William L. Davis, and Lester Rinehart, past vice president of Southern California District of California Moose Association.

APPOINTED BY KENNEDY

Laila P. Bowen, president of the Pilot Club of Torrance, announced today that Miss Ruth E. Cunningham of San Gabriel Valley, California, president of Pilot International, has been appointed by President Kennedy on the Women's Committee of the President's Committee for the Employment of the Handicapped.

A representative for the more than 450 Pilot Clubs with a membership of 13,500, Miss Cunningham will serve as delegate for Pilot International on the Board of Directors of CARE, Inc. at their annual meeting which to be held in New York Pilot International is one of the 26 member agencies of CARE, Inc.