

MAGNESIUM FIRE blazes in the center of the fallen aircraft as firemen attempt to free a victim's body. Police and firemen braved fallen "hot" lines to reach the scene. Witnesses to the crash told police they attempted to reach persons in the plane but were driven away by the heat. Authorities believe the pilot encountered engine trouble on take-off from the airport and crashed while attempting to circle back to the runway for a landing. —PRESS photo

AMBULANCE ATTENDANTS place one of the victims of Saturday's air crash on a stretcher for a trip to the hospital. Four persons died in the crash when a wheel of the plane apparently caught a high power line flipping the craft over on its back on the edge of an oil sump. —PRESS photo by David Ranns

Torrance Moose Lodge was the scene of a belated Halloween costume dance on Saturday, Nov. 2. Spooks, goblins, witches and creatures from outer space crowded the scene and contributed to the gay atmosphere of the evening.

After a difficult session the judges finally reached the decision to award the following persons for their costumes: Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Morris, 22929 S. Berendo Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. Don Starke, 230 E. 238th Place, Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schmits, 1655 E. Leigh Ave., Hacienda Heights; and Mr. Milton Taurman, 22412 Wilmington, Wilmington.

Special guests of the Torrance Moose Lodge for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Prinkart. Mr. Prinkart is a traveling auditor for the Supreme Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose with headquarters at Mooseheart, Ill., 30 miles west of Chicago. The Prinkarts are making Torrance their temporary home for a few months.

The Halloween costume party was planned and executed by dance chairman Robert Fryer and his committee members. Vi and the Three J's supplied the danceable music for everyone. Governor Joseph Marley announced that the next regular dance would be Nov. 16 at the Moose Home at 1744 W. Carson.
