

Small Business Workshop Set

Alvin P. Meyers, Regional Director Small Business Administration, Los Angeles, announced today that they will offer a one-day free workshop for people planning to start businesses of their own. There will be no fees of any kind charged.

The meeting will be held in the Assembly Room of the Los Angeles Public Library, 630 West Fifth Street, in downtown Los Angeles, starting at 10 a.m. on Monday, November 18th.

The purpose of this all-day meeting is to better prepare individuals who never before owned and operated a business of their own. Many "do's and don't's" will be brought to their attention throughout the proceedings. Meyers said their aim is to inform the potential business man of the advantages in becoming his own boss while at the same time pointing out some of the "pitfalls" in owning and operating a business. Questions will be answered after each presentation as well as at the end of the day.

Interesting and important discussions will be held on such subjects as finance, record keeping, taxes, site location, insurance coverage, general administrative management matters, and the best form of business structure to select. Enrollees will be reminded of the need for outside advice and assistance such as government help and aid from attorneys, accountants and bankers.

Moose Lodge Plans Fry

In an announcement made this week by Joseph Marley, governor of Torrance Moose Lodge, it was stated that the next family affair at the lodge would be a fish fry on Friday evening, Nov. 15, with serving starting at 6 p.m. Arthur Galinsky, ways and means committee chairman, will be in charge of arrangements for the event.

According to Galinsky, Chef Dan Hutchinson will provide a second entree for those who do not care for the fish speciality. Kitchen chairman Traverse Schinke announced that any Moose member looking for one of his lodge brothers should check at the kitchen and join the missing brother, as he expects to have several on duty there.

Assisting the lodge brothers with the serving of the tables will be members of the Women of the Moose, Chapter No. 44 under the guidance of Lorraine Walker, senior regent of the chapter. Once again the men of the Loyal Order of Moose will receive the fine cooperation of their auxiliary members.
