

Savings Firm Opens Office in PV Center

California Federal Savings has established a regional loan office to serve residents of the Palos Verdes Peninsula and South Bay as a result of the billion dollar association's faith and confidence in the continued dynamic growth of these areas, according to Arthur E. Neelley, senior vice president in charge of California Federal's loan division.

"California Federal's loan volume is growing at a rapid rate in this area," said Neelley, "and our new facilities are fully prepared to handle this expected increase in real estate activities. Our doors are now open to customers and others who are thinking about refinancing, selling or buying."

Neelley said Frank Burger is in charge of the regional loan office. Burger's seven-member loan staff is quartered on the second floor of California Federal's newly occupied million-dollar, three-story building on Silver Spur Road at Drybank Drive in the Peninsula Center. There are five members of the savings staff headed by Charles J. Piccard.

A community room, drive-up window, subterranean as well as outdoor parking, and many other outstanding features are being provided in the new building which offers a total of 56,000 sq. ft. The new quarters replace a temporary office opened at a nearby location in mid-1962.

Torrance Youths To Participate In Yule Parades

Marcella Jones and Diane Berr, of 21900 Martin, Torrance, members of the City of Commerce Youth Band, will be busy during December, January and February, marching in southland parades, along with other band members.

According to Mayor Maurice H. Quigley, the City of Commerce Youth Band will first be in the Dec. 7 Huntington Park Christmas Parade.

This will be followed by appearances on Dec. 14, South Pasadena Christmas parade; Dec. 28, Disneyland toy parade; January 25, City of Commerce anniversary parade; February 21, Indio Date Festival; Feb. 29, Temple City Camellia Festival.

The band is directed by Ron Hoar, and is sponsored by the City of Commerce, as one of its many youth projects.

Registration Open For Basketball Program

Registration for the basketball program at Lomita Park will begin on Saturday, Dec. 7 and continue through Dec. 21. All boys between the ages of eight and 14 are eligible. Registration will be held in the Lomita Park Field House, 24428 Eshelman Ave. Volunteer coaches are needed for some teams. Men interested in coaching or assisting are asked to call the park at DA 6-9949.

Course Offered Parents-to-be By Red Cross

Mother and Baby Care, the Red Cross course offered free for preparedness training as prospective parents, will be offered at the South Bay Red Cross branch, 109 Emerald, Redondo Beach, beginning this week. Seven classes, meeting from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. will be taught on consecutive Mondays and Wednesdays by a specially trained registered nurse.

To enroll for the course, interested persons should call the Red Cross, FR 2-5858.

Red Cross advises that the course be taken not more than two months prior to when the baby is due.

In addition to illustrated lectures, the course study includes class discussions and practice sessions to help prepare expectant mothers and fathers for their forthcoming responsibilities.
