Gardener's Checklist

1. You can lift your tuberous begonias now. Wash the tuber and sort in boxes where the air can circulate freely around them. Only one layer deep in the box, please. You can dust with a fungicide before storing.

2. Where the tuberous begonias you can put cinerarias . . . or nemesia or the English primrose or Fairy primrose. English primroses will take more frost than the Fairy primrose.

3. The growth of home developments has encouraged mice and rats, both of which like bulbs and other plant materials you may have stored in the basement. Put out the new, improved rat poisons but keep them away from children and pets.

4. For the amazement of your children, grow a bulb or three in a bowl filled with gravel and some water or in a hyacinth glass. Even adults love it.

5. Keep any leaves still falling raked up. Compost clean garden trash but if leaves are diseased in any way, burn them. Don't compost.

CHRISTMAS IN NEW YORK

It takes 7,000 lights, 5,000 glittering ornaments, 24 electricians and 10 days to decorate the 60-foot Christmas tree in Rockefeller Center. When the switch is flicked on December 12, New York knows the festive season has arrived. The world's most famous Christmas tree, it has been the symbol of Yuletide in New York since 1933.

There's a Christmas Circus at the Coliseum. Radio City Music Hall fills its huge stage with a special Christmas spectacular. Lincoln Center and Carnegie Hall will join in presenting the first New York Christmas Music Festival. The City Center Ballet will dance "The Nutcracker". At the Bronx Botanical Gardens, a life-size Nativity scene of Florentine figures and live animals recreates the Christmas story. For a free folder on these, and hundreds of other Christmas attractions in New York City, write to the New York Convention and Visitors Bureau, 90 East 42nd St., New York 17, N.Y.

Is Your Business Conducted Under A FICTITIOUS FIRM NAME?

If it is, then you should protect your firm name by publication of a legal ad once a week for four weeks. Section 2466 of the Civil Code states: "Every person and every partnership transacting business under a fictitious firm name must file a certificate stating the name in full and the place of residence of such persons and the membership of such partnership.

Unless a legal ad is published, your firm name is in jeopardy, and your business is not entitled to use the California courts for collection or other suits.

This newspaper is an adjudicated legal newspaper. Our nominal charge for this service also include filing. If you have neglected this do it today!
