Puppet Theatre Troupe Presents Hansel and Gretel

An enchanted dragon who puffs real smoke, a greedy witch in a gingerbread house, a child's dream of singing angels in a fairy-land of clouds, bubbles and silvery snowfall—these and a hundred other magical effects to delight the young at heart will be seen during the New York Marionette Theatre's $60,000 production of "Hansel and Gretel" double billed with "Legends of the Orient," to be given at Coulter City Memorial Auditorium Thursday through Sunday, December 26, 27, 28 and 29. Performances are 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. daily, with Sunday shows at 2:30 and 4:45 p.m.

MARCIA GRAVES, play-reading chairman; Bob Faulk, a director for Palos Verdes Players and prominent TV and movie star; and Marge Carlson, former chairman of Players and now on publicity committee, discuss new Palos Verdes Playhouse in Plaza.

PALOS VERDES PLAYERS HAVE NEW THEATER

When Palos Verdes Players organized, over thirty years ago, the most far-reaching plan they could hope for was to have their own theater in the Palos Verdes Plaza. Now the dream has been fulfilled, for they have taken a long lease on the large building which was formerly the postoffice there! There is lots of parking and they now plan to step up production from three plays each season to continuous theater at all times.

It is hoped that organizations will take blocks of tickets for these plays and also that other organizations in the community who need meeting space for their social and club activities will rent the Playhouse from the Players. George Tremble, long-time member of the group who has taken part in many of the plays as well as assisted with other phases of production has taken on the responsibility of business manager. He can be reached by calling FR 5-2967.

Theater Manager
Jerry Dulin, who was also one of the persons most responsible for obtaining the Playhouse, has accepted the role of theater manager and is busy these days, as are most of the other members of the Palos Verdes Players, getting the Playhouse ready for the first production. He hopes that if anyone has cast-off furniture suitable for the Playhouse they will call him at the theater, 375-7566. He can also be contacted regarding rental of the Playhouse.
