

SPEBSOSA HAS NEW DIRECTOR

The Palos Verdes Chapter of Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America has a new chorus director. Marvin H. Moffitt, of Wilmington, assistant Director of the Long Beach Chapter, will assume the duties of musical director of the San Pedro group effective Jan. 6, 1964, date of the next regular meeting.

Officers and directors for 1964 will be installed at the Jan. 6 meeting. Don Galvin, president of the Far Western District, will officiate. Visitors are welcome, especially men who like to sing just for fun.

The new officers have announced plans for increasing membership and expanding the chorus which will be featured at the next Barber Shop Harmony concert to be held early next Fall. A quartet development program will also be undertaken.

Men interested in becoming "barbershoppers" should consider joining at this time so that they may be fully prepared to participate in the forthcoming show, as well as other appearances before civic, charitable, and educational organizations.

The chapter will meet every Monday night, as usual, beginning with the Jan. 6 meeting, at Anderson Memorial Clubhouse, 9th and Mesa St., San Pedro.

For further information contact the president, Joseph A. Hencel, 1522 W. 255th St., Harbor City.

EC Student Wins Award

Chemistry student, Keith Sutter, was named today as first prize winner of the fifth annual Chemistry IAB Achievement Award at El Camino College by William T. Mooney, assistant director of instruction.

The prize, a $50 gift from an anonymous donor, is given annually as a "reward for excellence in general chemistry."

Sutter, a pre-pharmacy student, is a graduate of Mira Costa High School and has done his work at El Camino with instructor Warren Ford.

Basis of selection for the award is a faculty committee evaluation of the five top student scores in lecture and lab work.
