An Unusual Visitor at Serra High

Brother Aloysius M. Soden, S.M., has been visiting Serra High this summer. The Marianist priest has been in Japan since 1929.

In Yokohama, he taught English until 1941, when he was interned. Repatriated in 1942, he served as a Japanese Language Officer in the U.S. Navy until the end of the war.

At the end of the war, he returned to Yokohama as director of St. Joseph College, and later became treasurer of the college.

Bro. Soden is currently on the faculty at the University of Dayton, Ohio, where he teaches Far Eastern studies.

While at Serra, Bro. Soden has been visiting two former Yokohama students — Bro. Jorge da Silva, S.M., Serra principal, and Bro. Robert Haruyama, S.M., an instructor in mathematics.

Investments Yield Funds For District

Investments in U.S. Treasury Bills and county deposits has yielded $165,959.86 for the Torrance Unified School District in the past year.

The investment funds come from surplus cash accumulated in the general fund and building fund accounts. The income is used each year in the budget.

Interest from the building fund account is used to pay off bonds as provided by state law.

Fuchsia Society

The Lomita Fuchsia Society will hold its annual spaghetti dinner Sunday evening at the home of C. O. Eipper, 25338 Pennsylvania Ave., from 2:30 until 6:30 p.m.
