Little League Lease Extended

The Pacific Coast Little League lease on airport property has been extended by the City Council until July 31, 1965. In voting to extend the lease, councilmen overruled a recommendation by the Airport Commission for denial of the lease extension.

Awards for 'Best Cars' Announced

Buddy Ruhl, Roy Pritchard, and Javier Chavez won the top division prizes in the second annual Revell customizing car contest, held last week at the Toy King store, 1265 Sartori.

Judges for the contest, which was rated one of the best in the area, included Dave Garrison and Royce Freeman, Pharaoh's Pacers Car Club of Redondo.

Ruhl won the first prize for the senior division best car entry, and claimed the prizes for second place in the same contest. Ruhl also won the first and third prizes in the best paint job division of the contest. Eddie Perez won the third place ribbon in the senior division.

Pritchard claimed the top prize in the intermediate division, and got the second place ribbon for the paint contest. Other intermediate division winners were Alan Garfield, second place, and Vincent Okumura, the third place winner.

Chavez was given the top award in the junior division. Second place was claimed by Don Kaid, while Gerald Okumura won third place.

Several other entries were given honorable mentions in all four sections of the judging.

Church to Install New Parish Aide

Miss Carolyn Mueller will be formally inducted into the service of Ascension Lutheran Church, 17910 S. Prairie Ave., during the 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. services today.

The Rev. Lloyd C. Warneke, pastor, will officiate. An informal reception will be held for Miss Mueller after the second service.

She will serve as a parish worker in the church office and teach the newly organized kindergarten class at Ascension Lutheran School.

Miss Mueller was graduated from St. John's Lutheran College, Winfield, Kan., in 1961. Before coming to Ascension, she taught at Trinity Lutheran School, Mt. Clemens, Mich.

Carnival at Civic Center

The ninth annual "County Fair" Carnival is scheduled for Friday and Saturday by the Torrance Recreation Department. The carnival fairway will open adjacent to the plunge at 6 p.m. and will feature entertainment, food and soft drinks.

A highlight of the fair will be the County Fair Talent Show which will be staged on a hay-strewn stage, complete with a "honkey-tonk" piano to accompany most of the acts.

Following the carnival, both evenings, will be the "Aqua-Americana" Show coordinated by Jim Armstrong. The show promises a stunning and exciting show for the whole family. Admission to the aquacade is free, but there will be a nominal charge for events at the carnival booths.
