COUNT MARCO SAYS—

He Isn't Ready For Marriage

The young man of today steps into marriage with hip boots on so as not to get his feet wet. He's really afraid of marriage, doesn't want it, but tries it because all his friends are getting into it.

Consequently, because he's not prepared for the tough responsibilities of marriage, he becomes the one out of every two husbands who, through divorce, leave behind them a trail of bitter wives and howling brats.

It's all the fault of the American Mother System. You won't let the boys grow into manhood because you're afraid of losing your ill-gained domination.

As a mother you can sabotage his future happiness by not teaching him the main fact of life, which is "responsibility." The other facts he soon learns without your help.

You American women today marry and have children so you can join the PTA. Once that's done, you assume that your job as a wife and mother is over. You've produced and been accepted. But what a mess you've made of it all.

If you do nothing else in this world but raise a daughter who can raise her son be a responsible individual in marriage, you will have contributed greatly to rehabilitating womanhood.

After all, no truer words were ever written than "The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world."

Today's young man hasn't the faintest notion of what is required of him as a husband, father and head of the house. Watching how you and his father get along, he assumes that bills and marriage are synonymous.

Naturally it's always the woman's fault. So train your daughter now. She must forever be an example of modesty and goodness to her husband and family.

Always considerate, she must never demand more of him than he can pay for. She must cook, wash and sew; be at home whenever he or the children reach the door.

In fact, once a week she should drag out an old-fashioned washboard and scrub some of his clothes as a sort of penance to show her appreciation for just being married.

Garden Checklist

1. For a real garden treat... plant lantanas now. They are especially happy in warmer California areas where they are colorful nearly 12 months of the year. However, cooler California areas can get a real show of color from them for many long months. If you want bloom now, check with your local C.A.N. nursery and see what the lantanas have to offer.

2. Pink India Hawthorn is also an excellent garden addition. It thrives in the toughest going, with poor soil and lack of water. It always has a clean, neat appearance. In spring, Pink India Hawthorn is a mass of delicate pink blossoms. By late summer there are clusters of berries which ripen to a blue-black color.

3. Many annuals, notably petunias, will give you a second bloom if you cut them back, feed and water them into new growth.

4. Many vegetables may be planted this month for fall-winter harvest. For the types just right for your area, check with your local C.A.N. nurseryman.

5. Azaleas and camellias should be fed lightly this month if you haven't already.

Explorers To Honor Two Eagles

An Eagle Court of Honor will be held at Seaside School Thursday evening to invest two members of Explorer Post 154X with the rank of Eagle Scouts.

Lance Matson and Craig Pulley, both members of Troop 64 which represented the area at the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge last month, will receive the Eagle insignia.

During the Court of honor, some 35 merit badges will be awarded to the 19 members of the Explorer post. Jim Streeter will receive the life scout award, and Russ Hell will get the star scout insignia. Robert Horton Jr. will be given the gold palm for his Eagle badge, while Steve Nelson will get the bronze palm for the Eagle badge.

The post specializes in scuba diving and prospecting for gold. Plans for the future include a bus trip into Canada. The trip will be financed by members of the post through fund raising projects.

The post is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Torrance and meets at the American Legion Hall in Redondo Beach.

Vote Signup Time Nearing

Sept. 10 is the deadline for registering to vote in the November general election.

Deputy registrars will be in county parks and libraries and other key departments to register voters.

"Here in California it is easy to vote. There is no poll tax—there is no fee whatsoever to register," Supervisor Kenneth Hahn said.

"We are living in a critical time and a citizen's participation in government at the ballot box is important in preserving our way of government, freedom, liberty and security," Hahn added.
