'Write From Heart' Says Authoress

"You must write by heart," decided she was through writing what someone else wanted her to write. Her "Book of Alms" is a collection of poems, short stories, and personal essays which she says "come straight from the heart."

Mrs. Baker says purely commercial writing leads to frustration and unhappiness for the author. "It is a pity," she said, "that a person must write to earn a living."

After writing radio continuity scripts, soap operas, and advertising copy, Mrs. Baker

O'Connor and Florence Hancher reported manuscript sales.

"It proves my contention," she declared, "that any subject can be written about with emotion and satisfaction to the author."

Coin Club Accepts Six New Members

Six new members were accepted into the Torrance Coin Club at a meeting last week. The new members are William Cave, Ray Wells, Marie Michaels, Lawrence La Dou, and Jack and Anita Strausberg.

Wayne Dennis spoke on the N.A.S.C. Convention, and Ann Hall was the featured speaker. She spoke about "Famous Women on Coins."

Displays included: Ven a Crow, "British One Penny;" Ronald Stokes, "U.S. Presidents Who Have Died or Were Assassinated While in Office;" Bob Axelrod, "A Little Bit of America;" and Minerva Axelrod, "Coins Around the World."

Other displays were by Mel Kohl, Jack Strausberg, and Bob Clemons. Minerva Axelrod won the display award. The club meets on the third Tuesday of each month at the Torrance Recreation Center.
