

MRS. JAMES RICHARD SIBERT ... Former Roberta Holloway (Portrait by Seeman)

Candlelight Rites Link Holloway-Sibert Names

In a candlelight evening ceremony at the Torrance Assembly of God Church, Miss Roberta Fay Holloway, daughter of Mrs. James Holloway, 1413 W. 120th St., became the bride of James Richard Sibert, son of Mrs. Helen Sibert of Torrance and Mr. Vernon Sibert of San Jose.

Carrying her bouquet of roses and stephanotis atop her late father's Bible, the bride walked to the altar wearing a full length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon organza. A tiara held her illusion veil.

Mrs. Vera May Todd served as her sister's matron of honor.

Miss Romona Mead was bridesmaid. Both attendants wore blue chiffon over taffeta and carried bouquets of blue gladioli.

Robert Carlisle performed the duties of best man and ushers were David Sibert, Steven Sibert and Bobby Joe Martin.

Rev. Robert Boyd officiated at the marriage as Miss Marylyn Holcomb played the nuptial music. Mrs. Carol Marsh was soloist.

The 200 guests attended a reception at the church where Mrs. Carol Martin registered the guests. Assisting at the coffee service and punch bowl were Mrs. Pauline Williams, of Santa Ana, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Bernice Kern, the bridegroom's aunt. Mrs. Louise Blassfield and Miss Lynda Mead served the wedding cake.

A buffet supper at the home of the bride's mother was held for relatives and out-of-town friends.

The honeymoon was spent in Yosemite.

The bride, a 1960 Narbonne graduate, is employed by Harvey Aluminum in Torrance. Her husband is a 1960 graduate of Gardena High School.

Junior Club Selects Its Philanthropy

Presiding over the recent Executive Board meeting, held in the home of Mrs. Robert Clark, 3643 W. 176th St., Torrance, was Mrs. Ronald Hoover, president, Torrance Junior Woman's Club. Mrs. Hoover announced that her theme for the 1964-65 club year will be "Truth is the Foundation of Strength."

Mrs. William Burchfield, philanthropy director, announced that representatives of the YMCA, YWCA, and Harbor General will be at the September business meeting in order to give the club an idea of the needs of these groups.

Other philanthropies in which Juniors are interested are Cerebral Palsy pre-school, Southwest Association for Retarded Children, the many Health Drives, March of Dimes, Hope CARE, Torrance Scout Center, and the Happy Wander Puppet Theater.

Mrs. David Wade, ways and means chairman, announced that the first fund raising event will be in October, when Juniors and Civitans will join together in a "Dudes and Dolls" night of Casino-type games, buffet, cocktails and dancing to the Melo-Tones.

prizes galore and special prizes for the best costume. Spearheading this benefit along with Mrs. Wade are Mr. Ted Walker, board member, Richard Ciciotti, president of Civitans, and Mrs. Ciciotti, who has volunteered for the Civitan wives, to decorate for this gala evening.

For reservations, Mrs. H. W. Cline, 1967 Galerita Dr., San Pedro, may be called.

Guitar Class Opens at Y

Two classes for teenagers only in guitar are now open for registration at the Torrance YWCA. The classes are limited to 15, so advance registration is advisable.

Thursday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock, Miss Dorothy Denny, instructor, the class meets for 8 weeks starting Sept. 17. The second class will be a two hour lesson and will meet on Tuesday evening from 6 to 8, starting Sept. 15 with Gary Hart as instructor. Both classes will feature the "strum" method of guitar and will include folksinging. After the eight week sessions there will be an intermediate class available for those who wish to continue.

All you need is a guitar and a desire to play, stated Carol Wood, director. The YWCA may be called for registration and additional information, also for information on adult guitar classes.

WSCS Plans Activities

Executive Committee of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church held its first meeting after a summer recess Aug. 27, at 9:30 a.m. in the Friendship room of the Church with 20 members present.

Mrs. Chester Wiley conducted the business meeting at which plans for the coming months activities were announced.

The speaker for the Sept. 10 general meeting will be Mrs. John Chamberlain, who will speak on "Women of the New Age."

The first study class will be held Sept. 14 at 10 a.m. at the church on "The Nation and the Kingdom."

The annual rummage sale will be held Friday, Sept. 18, at the church. The breakfast for new members is slated for Oct. 14.

Evans-Scharer Nuptials Solemnized in Inglewood

Miss Susan Kathleen Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bruce Evans, 3109 W. 180th St., Torrance became the bride of Gerald Thomas Scharer in an afternoon ceremony at the First Christian Church in Inglewood on Aug. 8. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mat J. Scharer, 221 N. Inglewood Ave., Inglewood and the late Mat J. Scharer.

Dr. Hugh Morgan stood before a flower-banked altar to officiate at the double ring marriage service. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace over satin detailed with a Sabrina neckline. An orange blossom tiara held her silk illusion veil and she carried a cascade of white roses, carnations, stephanotis and fern.

Mrs. Harold J. Vandenberg of Murkagon, Mich., served as her sister's honor attendant. She wore turquoise organza over taffeta and carried Talisman roses. Two other sisters, Carol Ellen Evans and Julie Joy Evans were the junior bridesmaids. They also wore turquoise organza and carried Talisman roses and tangerine carnations.

Mat J. Scharer stood as his brother's best man and Tom Robinson of Santa Barbara was usher.

A reception followed in Fellowship Hall with Mrs. William Bue in charge of the bride's book.

The bridal couple spent a honeymoon in San Diego. The new Mrs. Scharer was educated in Grand Rapids, Mich. Her husband is an Inglewood High graduate.
