

'Housewives Haven' Set For Tuesday Morning Run

Housewives will have a starting Sept. 22, area home- "haven" from their home makers will gather at the chores each Tuesday morning theater for what may be the in the Rolling Hills Theater world's largest Kaffeeklatsch.

"Show Day" is the title of the event, featuring a major film, coffee, pastries, and a chance to get away from household routine.

Master-of-ceremony duties are shared by Ron Pearson, manager of Leonard's Torrance store, and Nat Levine, theater manager.

Doors open at 9 a.m. and from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. the ladies enjoy coffee and pastries (gratis) together with an opportunity of meeting and chatting with their friends.

A drawing is held for more than 40 gifts consisting of 20 bags of groceries and 20 door prizes from various departments of the Leonard's Store.

To limit attendance to the theater seating capacity, 1,100 tickets are released by Leonard's Torrance store during the week.

This program will continue through the fall and up until the Christmas season.

Now that Junior has returned to school "Mom" can get that much needed respite and have a morning of fun and relaxation as a guest at Leonard's "Show Day" morning.
