U.S.-Mexico Narcotics Commission Near Reality

Legislation in Congress to form a joint United States-Mexico Commission on Narcotics, a proposal initiated in 1959 by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, was strongly endorsed by the Board of Supervisors this week.

Hahn advanced the idea in a letter to President Dwight D. Eisenhower. In 1961, the Supervisor repeated the proposal in correspondence to President John F. Kennedy and in 1962 it was made a recommendation of the President's White House Conference on Narcotics and Drug Abuse. President Lyndon B. Johnson also recommended the legislation to Congress early this year.

Now pending as House Joint Resolution 780, it requests the President of the United States to negotiate with the President of Mexico to form a joint commission to investigate the flow of marijuana, narcotics, and other dangerous drugs between the two countries.

SUPERVISOR Hahn commended Congressman Richard T. Hanna of Anaheim for introducing the legislation in the house.

"I am glad this proposal is finally in the action stage," Hahn said. "Before the narcotics problem is going to be solved we must have the full cooperation of the government of Mexico."

AS PART OF his motion endorsing the bill in Congress, Supervisor Hahn asked Clerk of the Board Gordon Nesvig to communicate with Guestavo Diaz Ordaz, recently elected President of the Republic of Mexico.

Private Bus Inspections Get Under Way in County

Safety inspections by the California Highway Patrol of church, Sunday school, and other privately owned buses was begun Friday under a program initiated by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

The voluntary inspection of the buses was approved by Highway Commissioner Bradford Crittenden. Mandatory inspection of the same vehicles will begin March 1, 1965.

"This inspection of private buses will fill the gap in a badly needed area of motor vehicle safety," Hahn said.

The present mandatory inspection program for all school vehicles was under taken upon Hahn's insistence following a school bus accident in 1959, in which eight persons died. As a result, all public school and private and parochial school buses must now be inspected annually by the Highway Patrol.
